To all our stakeholders

Dear Sirs,

We are glad to announce that «KazakhExport» Export insurance company» joint-stock company confirms its commitment to the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact on human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption.

As a member of the National Network of the UN Global Compact we share a belief that our sustainable development rests on compliance with principles of bona fide conduct of our activities and responsible behavior with respect to all the concerned parties. We adhere to generally accepted moral and ethical standards, ensure transparency of activities, respect human rights and support ecological initiatives.

Topic of social, ecological and economic sustainability pro-actively commences its path of development and dissemination.

Being a member of the UN Global Compact, our Company carries out information and educational arrangements to introduce and explain 10 Principles of the UN Global Compact, to introduce international reporting standards and systems in sustainable development (GRI).

We do our best to involve in all business processes our concerned parties, including representatives of public authorities, our suppliers, public associations and mass media.

In this Report we describe activities of the Partnership and undertake measures to integrate 10 Principles of the UN Global Compact into our business processes and day-to-day activities of our Company.

We would like to share this information with all our stakeholders using our main communication channels.

Sincerely yours,
Mr. Ruslan Iskakov

Chairman of the Management Board, «KazakhExport» Export insurance company» joint-stock company
