COMMUNICATION ON ENGAGEMENT (COE)

Period covered by this Communication on Engagement 2020-2021

To our stakeholders

We are pleased to confirm that The Information Institute (II) reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labor, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

The II incorporates the GC principles into internal operations and communications, including:

- We respect, support the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights;
- We advocate the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation
- We vigorously encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies
- We insist that businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery

The II promotes the GC and its principles through the following activities:

- We disseminate the Global Compact principles to our constituents
- Wherever possible, we integrate education on topics related to the Global Compact (elimination of discrimination in employment and occupation; diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies and to reject corruption in all its forms)

The Information Institute salutes the role that the United Nations Global Compact has played in promoting sustainable development across the business world. We look forward to an ongoing meaningful partnership with the United Nations Global Compact.

Yours sincerely
