Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

As a signatory of the United Nations Global Compact, we also continued to make 10 principles related to human rights, labour standards, environment and anti-corruption compliant with our bank strategy, policies, procedures and future goals through our activities supporting the Sustainable Development Goals and to perform our activities in line with these principles with a sustainable understanding in 2020.

We presented our second Integrated Annual Report to our valuable stakeholders that includes UN Women's Empowerment Principles (UN WEPs) Progress Report and our activities regarding 10 principles of United Nations Global Compact that we first signed in 2019. We have determined our priorities among Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) which are considered to be as the starting point of our sustainability approach as follows;

1-Quality Education, 2-Gender Equality, 3-Decent Works and Economic Growth, 4-Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure, 5-Reducing Inequalities.

I am honoured to state that our commitment will continue as a bank that is effective, productive, participant and demonstrating the impact of its activities within the scope of SDGs in 2021 and beyond.

Sincerely yours,

Abdi Serdar ÜSTÜNSALIH
