BEIJER • ALMA

Svenska Q Menu **=

An active supporter. Through the Global Compact, the Group actively supports ten internationally recognized principles in four areas: human rights, labor rights, the environment and anti-corruption. The ongoing work with the Global Compact is presented here.

Global Compact 2020

| GLOBAL COMPACT   |  | STATUS  | READMORE INPDF  |
|------------------|--|---|---|
| Human rights     | 1. Businesses should support and respect       | Information and training regarding Beijer Alma's Code of  | 2 →   |
|                  | the protection of internationally              | Conduct were provided at several units. The Group offers  | 17-21 →  |
|                  | proclaimed human rights.                       | a joint anti-corruption/business ethics training program, | 22 →  |
|                  |  | which nearly 800 employees participated in during 2020.   |   |
|                  |  | No human rights violations were reported.                 |   |
|                  | 2. Businesses should make sure that they       | Continuous efforts to assess suppliers' sustainability    | 2 →   |
|                  | are not complicit in human rights abuses.      | work via surveys and audits are ongoing. In 2020, 276     | 17-22 →   |
|                  |  | supplier assessments were carried out through surveys     |   |
|                  |  | and 27 through audits. No human rights violations were    |   |
|                  |  | reported.   |   |
| Labor conditions | 3. Businesses should uphold the freedom | The Code of Conduct lists freedom of association and      | 17−19 →   |
|                  | of association and the effective               | the right to collective bargaining as a fundamental       | $\begin{array}{c} 20 \rightarrow \\ 22 \rightarrow \end{array}$ |
|                  | recognition of the right to collective         | principle. Trade unions have been established in all      |   |
|                  | bargaining.                                    | relevant countries and countries where this is customary. |   |
|                  |  | In countries without trade unions, the company and its    |   |
|                  |  | employees engage in other types of negotiations.          |   |
|                  | 4. Businesses should uphold the                | All forms of forced and compulsory labor are forbidden    | 17-18 →   |
|                  | elimination of all forms of forced and         | at Beijer Alma and among the Group's suppliers. There     | 20 →  |
|                  | compulsory labor.                              | are no signs that any violations occurred in 2020.        | 25 →  |
|                  | 5. Businesses should uphold the effective      | Child labor is forbidden at Beijer Alma and among the     | 17−18 →   |
|                  | abolition of child labor.                      | Group's suppliers. There are no signs that any violations | 20 →  |

|             |   | occurred during the year.   | 25 →               |
|-------------|---|---|--------------------|
|             | 6. Businesses should uphold the             | The Code of Conduct clearly states the Group's stance on  | 17−18 → |
|             | elimination of discrimination in respect of | discrimination and equality. No instances of  | 20 →               |
|             | employment and occupation.                  | discrimination were reported. Formal equality plans have been established at 17 of the Group's units. | 25 →               |
| Environment | 7. Businesses should support a       | The ISO 14001 environmental management system is a  | 17-21 →            |
|             | precautionary approach to environmental     | systematic tool in the Group's efforts to identify and  | 23-25 → |
|             | challenges.                                 | prevent risks. 80 percent of the Group's units are currently  |                    |
|             |   | certified and additional certifications are planned. We are   |                    |
|             |   | also taking a preventive approach, for example, by  |                    |
|             |   | installing treatment equipment, phasing out hazardous   |                    |
|             |   | chemicals and conducting risk analyses.   |                    |
|             | 8. Businesses should undertake initiatives  | Overall environmental responsibility rests with Group   | 17−18 → |
|             | to promote greater environmental            | management and responsibility for the daily operations  |                    |
|             | responsibility.                             | is delegated to the man- agement teams of the Group   |                    |
|             |   | companies. Performance is reported to Beijer Alma's   |                    |
|             |   | Board of Directors on a regular basis and communicated  |                    |
|             |   | externally through the Sustainability Report and CDP report.  |                    |
|             | 9. Businesses should encourage the          | The Group offers several good examples of   | 10−16 → |
|             | development and diffusion of                | component/product development that helps to reduce  | 22-25 →            |
|             | environmentally friendly technologies.      | environmental impact. In their annual sustainability  |                    |
|             |   | reporting, 40 percent of the Group's units stated that they   |                    |
|             |   | manufacture components that contribute to a lower   |                    |
|             |   | environmental impact, for example by replacing products with greener alternatives.                    |                    |

Anti-corruption

10. Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Beijer Alma's Code of Conduct provides clear guidance $17-18 \rightarrow$ regarding the prevention of corruption. A Group-wide anti-corruption/business ethics training program has been inplace since 2019. All Group companies perform anannual self-assessment about their work to combatcorruption. The assessment is based on guidingdocuments from the Global Compact. No violations weredetected during the year. $17-18 \rightarrow$ 20  $\rightarrow$

Global Compact 2019

SUSTAINABILITY REPORT

BEIJER • ALMA

Headquarters

Beijer Alma AB Box 1747 751 47 Uppsala Sweden Telephone: +46 18 15 71 60 E-mail: info@beijeralma.se

Visiting address Dragarbrunnsgatan 45, Uppsala Sweden Forumgallerian

Map →

Subsidiaries

Lesjöfors → Habia Cable → Beijer Tech →

Follow us

© Beijer Alma AB 2021