

António Guterres
Secretary-General
United Nations New York
NY 10017 USA

Reykjavik, 3 March 2021

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

Réttur- Aðalsteinsson & Partners became a member of the UN Global Compact in 2014 and has since worked closely with its partners and other stakeholders to adhere to its principles.

Réttur has long contributed to sustainable development practices, which is embedded in our business operations and culture. We remain committed to increasing those contributions by using the UN Sustainable Development Goals as guidance.

Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners traces its origin back to 1969 and today it is ranked as a top-tier law firm by the Legal500 and has garnered domestic and international recognition for professionalism and the provision of excellent quality of service. At the core of the firm's operation is the respect and protection of human rights and dignity, labour management and the environment and well as sustainable practices as enshrined in the ten principles.

Our world is experiencing a number of unprecedented crises and challenges simultaneously. Among others, a deadly virus, Covid-19, that has claimed the lives and livelihood of so many across the globe as well as the negative effects of climate change. We recognise the importance of our contribution towards the development of a safer and more equitable world. We therefore remain steadfast in our commitment to achieving these goals.

I therefore reaffirm our commitment to make known to our clients and community at large this information, using our primary modes of communication.

As a global citizen, Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners it continues to be our belief that advancing our sustainability practices is essential to our continued growth and longevity. We have therefore continued to take steps throughout the reporting period, 2019-2021, with the aim to further integrate the ten principles of the UN Global Compact into our business, culture and operations.

Enclosed is our sixth annual Communication on Progress which describes in detail our sustainability activities and progress throughout the period.

Yours sincerely,

Ragnar Aðalsteinsson

Senior Partner, CEO

Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners