CLIMATE CHANGE

most at risk

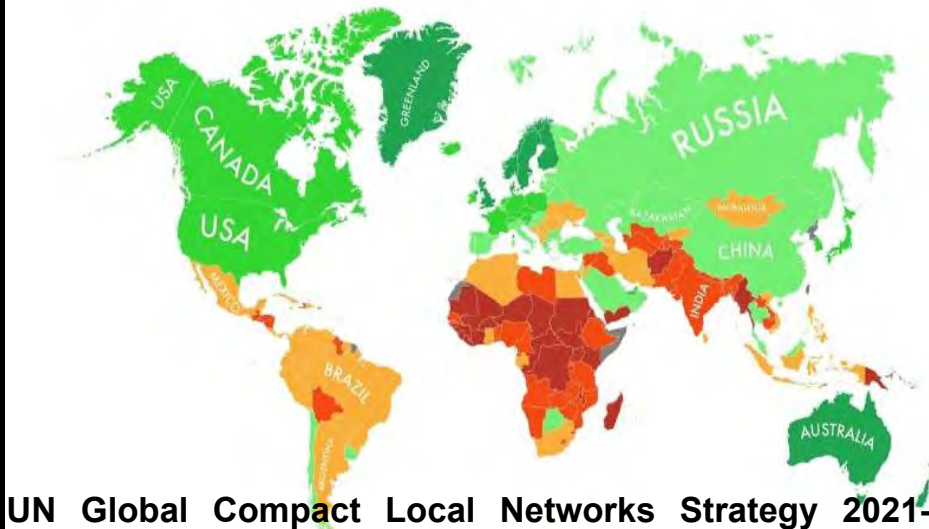

least at risk

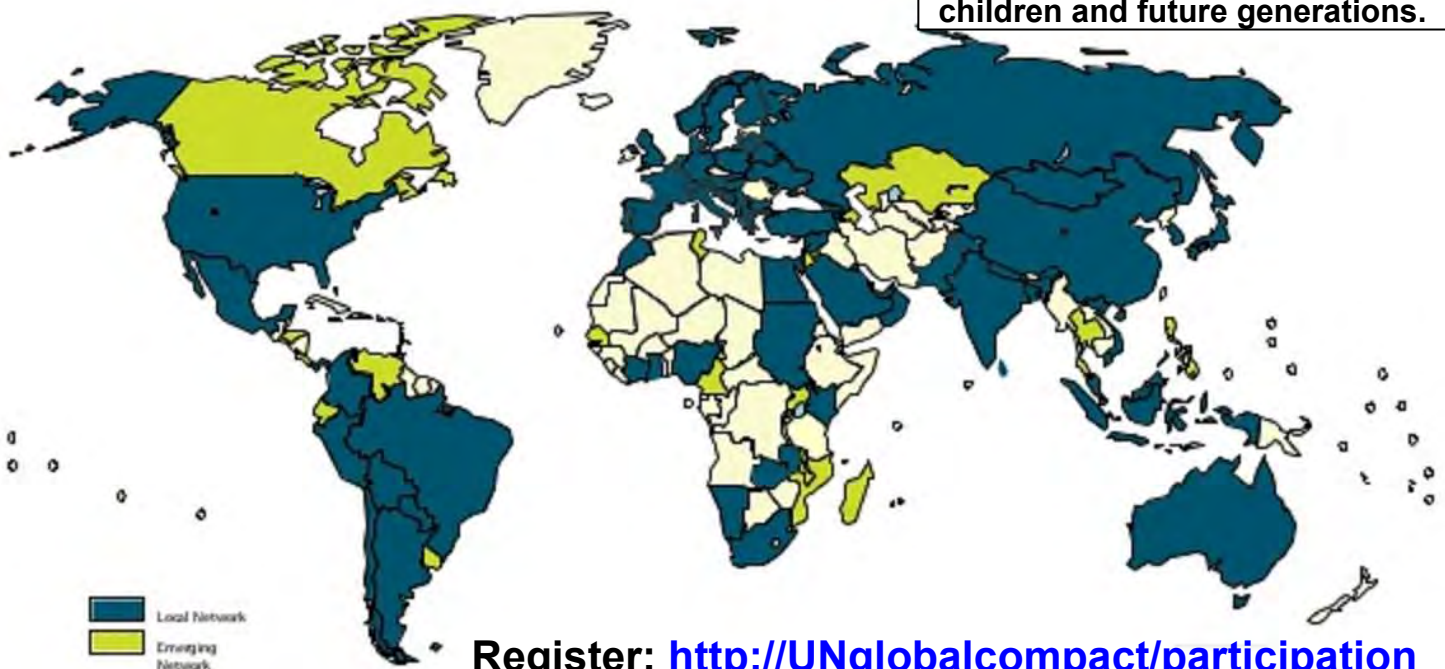

Where most people will die from climate chaos – “The Global South” overlaps the countries where there are the least number of United Nations Global Compact Local Networks.

Challenges facing the Decade of Action to Deliver Sustainable Development Goals, worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, looming hunger pandemic and climate chaos, can only be overcome by empowering multi-stakeholder partnerships (SDG#17)

Royal, Indigenous, Tribal, Faith-based and Community Leaders must work with the private sector, aid organizations, philanthropists, financial institutions, activists, governmental agencies, you and me, that improve the quality of life on Earth and of Earth, to heal the world and “leave no one behind” during this 4th Industrial Revolution for our children's children and future generations.

Challenges facing the 1,000-year Millennium Development Goals, now during its Sustainable Development Goals phase, the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, looming hunger pandemic and increasing climate chaos, can only be overcome with the support of Royal, Indigenous, Tribal, Traditional, Faith-based and Community Leaders, working with the private sector, aid organizations, philanthropists, financial institutions, governmental agencies, you and me, that improve the quality of life on Earth and of Earth, to heal the world and “leave no one behind”.

Five Points Youth Foundation is working with a multilingual, multicultural, multinational, and multi-regional Ad Hoc International Advisory Board of Goodwill Ambassadors, Advocates and Activists (AHIABGA) throughout the Earth:

- to recruit, empower and unify 10,000+ new interfaith and civil society members of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC)
- through new and existing UNGC Local Networks, local and online social networks, broadcast and interactive new media channels
- that develop, promote, publicize, mobilize and manage interfaith, neighborhood and business collaboratives (SDG #17)
- to build climate-smart (SDG #13) safe and sustainable communities and cities (SDG #11)
- to empower citizen activism, "people's diplomacy" and citizen journalism
- to “glocalize” the Sustainable Development Goals during the Decade of Action and Delivery of the SDGs
- in alignment with the First Ten Year Implementation Plan of the African Union Agenda 2063 Flagship and Legacy Projects such as the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) Agreement
- pursuant to U.N. Habitat New Urban Agenda, Sendai Framework on Disaster Risk Reduction, Youth4GlobalGoals and #Envision2030

Interfaith, Neighborhood & Business Invitation to Join the United Nations Global Compact Local Networks To Glocalize the Sustainable Development Goals

<http://UNglobalcompact.org/participation>

Please join and invite others to promote social justice and human rights, while combating Inequality and Climate Change 2021-2030 through building community resiliency locally and globally via the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact Local Networks Decade of Action and Delivery on the SDGs:

1. Commit to adapt Ten Principles in your organizational and operational model.
2. Assess and focus your impact on United Nations and Global Compact issues.
3. Define goals and tasks to invite up to 10 new members to join this campaign to glocalize the Sustainable Development Goals during this Decade of Action and Delivery on the SDGs and Decade for Biodiversity Restoration.
4. Implement your plan of action.
5. Measure the results each month.
6. Communicate your successes through press releases, Public Service Announcements, Social Media and to Five Points Youth Foundation.

The Ad Hoc International Advisory Board of Goodwill Ambassadors, Advocates and Activists, (AHIABGA) and associates will assist, coordinate and publicize your efforts with those in your own and Local Networks where you have affiliate contacts so that you meet the requirements of the Communication on Engagement to be filed with the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) to localize and globalize (glocalize) our efforts through the UNGC Local Network infrastructure.

Have your organization's top executive to complete the attached Commitment Letter and upload it (<https://www.unglobalcompact.org/participation>) and email us a copy when you successfully register to FivePointsPresident@gmail.com

The Ten Principals

The UN Global Compact's ten principles in the areas of human rights, labor, the environment and anti- corruption enjoy universal consensus and are derived from:

- o The Universal Declaration of Human Rights AND Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- o The International Labor Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work
- o The Rio Declaration on Environment and Development
- o The United Nations Convention Against Corruption

The UN Global Compact asks companies to embrace, support and enact, within their sphere of influence, a set of core values in the areas of human rights, labour standards, the environment and anti- corruption:

Human Rights

- o Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
- o Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Labor

- o Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- o Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labor;
- o Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labor; and
- o Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment

- o Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- o Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- o Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Anti-Corruption

- o Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that [INSERT AND REPLACE HERE THE NAME OF YOUR ORGANIZATION] supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption for businesses and non-businesses (academic institutions; business associations; cities and municipalities; civil society organizations; foundations; labour organizations; public sector organizations; and corporate social responsibility organizations).

With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment by working through Royal, tribal, indigenous, interfaith, neighborhood and business collaboratives to build safe, sustainable and climate-smart communities and cities (SDGs #11, #13 and #17) in collaboration with the Ad Hoc International Advisory Board of Goodwill Ambassadors, Advocates and Activists (AHIABGA).

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles.

We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact Communication On Engagement policy

Sincerely yours,

United Nations Global Compact Cities Programme

A framework for translating the Global Compact Principles into day-to-day urban governance and management.

The Global Compact Cities Programme (or Cities Programme) is the urban component of the United Nations Global Compact; the world's largest corporate responsibility initiative.

The United Nations Global Compact recognises that cities in particular, have the potential to make enormous strides in creating sustainable societies – where economic, ecological, political and cultural issues are integrated and advanced.

To that end, the Global Compact Cities Programme is dedicated to the promotion and adoption of the Global Compact's Ten UN Principles by cities, and provides a framework for translating the principles into day-to-day urban governance and management.

In the spirit of the United Nations Global Compact, the Cities Programme focuses on collaboration between all levels of government, business and civil society – to enhance sustainability, resilience, diversity and adaptation within cities and in the face of complex urban challenges.

The Cities Programme supports a holistic approach to sustainability that considers, plans for and measures impact across four social domains: the economic; ecological; political; and cultural.

Administered by an International Secretariat based at the Global Cities Institute at RMIT University in Melbourne, Australia, the Global Compact Cities Programme provides support, guidance and recognition to participating cities.

The Cities Programme offers three levels of engagement: Signatory, Leader and Innovating. Whilst all city and region participants are Global Compact signatories, the subsequent levels recognise and foster sustainability leadership – city leaders implementing the Ten Principles in the administration, planning and development of their city or region – in partnership with leaders in other sectors.

All cities and regions may choose to engage at the Leader and Innovating levels in the same period of becoming a Global Compact participant, or at a later date. The categories are outlined in the following section.

1. Signatory

In a letter to the UN Secretary-General from the highest level city leader, a Signatory City commits to the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact, endeavours to enact and promote those principles in city management, and encourages businesses in the city to join the UN Global Compact. They also commit to Communicate on Engagement

2. Leading

Cities or regions that engage with the Cities Programme at the Leadership-level are drivers of positive urban change. Such cities or regions generally have a dedicated sustainability plan or work within the framework of a comprehensive urban plan that has a holistic approach. Their work extends beyond the standard, administrative or service role of government. These cities or regions consider the future directly, are conscious of their roles as civic leaders and facilitators, and are intent on building resilient, sustainable and vibrant cities and regions.

Leading cities share their achievements and challenges with the broader Cities Programme network. This can be done through contributing case studies or elements of their reports for publication, participating in events hosted by the Cities Programme or partners, and engaging academia with their work. Engagement at this level is generally without a fee, however cities can choose to engage direct and extended support from the International Secretariat through financial contribution to research costs

3. Innovating

At the Innovation level, the highest level of engagement in the Cities Programme, a city or region is recognized for addressing a complex or seemingly intractable issue or set of issues within the city or region. This is done through a multi-year project. Whilst focused on resolving a specific issue or transforming a complex situation, these projects are holistic. All dimensions of that community and region — the ecological, economic, political and cultural domains — have been considered in the development of projects.

These projects have a transformative quality. They are managed cross-sectorally, engaging government, business and civil society in the development and implementation of the project. The project has clear monitoring and evaluation processes. At this level, dedicated support and recognition is provided by the Cities Programme Secretariat. The project is documented; and learning from this project is shared across the Cities Programme network and more broadly. A fee is associated with this level of engagement. This fee can be used to provide research support to the specific Innovating City project. Please Note: All cities and regions are signatories. All cities can access Cities Programme's resources and tools. Cities can participate at the three levels simultaneously.

United Nations Global Compact Local Networks Plan of Action 2021-2030

Conflict and instability not only impact people and the environment, but also pose risks to all parts of the business sector.

Business for Peace is a platform of over 130 leading companies from 37 countries dedicated to catalyzing collaborative action to advance peace.

By joining Business for Peace, companies will be able to:

- Better identify and manage business risks and opportunities while reducing operational costs
- Engage in public-private dialogue to establish local priorities and implement projects
- Align business strategies and operations with good practice from across the globe
- Share best and emerging practices and learn from the experiences of peers
- Demonstrate leadership and receive recognition for advancing practical solutions

Companies who join Business for Peace commit to:

- Paying heightened attention to the implementation of the UN Global Compact Ten Principles in high-risk and conflict-affected areas
- Take action to advance peace, either individually or in collaboration with others
- Annually communicate on progress

Recognizing that local ownership and knowledge are vital to driving change, Business for Peace has adopted a locally-driven approach. Business for Peace works to develop the capacity of Global Compact Local Networks to support participants in their efforts to conduct responsible business practices and advance peace.

18 Local Networks have already joined this growing movement, including: Canada, Colombia, Egypt, Germany, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Israel, Mexico, Nigeria, Pakistan, Republic of Korea, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Turkey, Uganda, Ukraine and United Kingdom.

United Nations Global Compact Caring for Climate to build Community Resiliency

WE SUPPORT
Caring for Climate

Business leaders around the world realize that climate change and environmental degradation pose important new risks and opportunities for their companies' competitiveness, growth and development.

Through innovation and long-term investments in energy efficiency and low-carbon technologies, business has the solutions to turn the climate challenge into market opportunities.

The UN Global Compact, the UN Environment Programme and the secretariat of the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change invite all business participants – learners and leaders with proven track record of commitment to climate action – to join Caring for Climate by signing the Caring for Climate Statement.

Caring for Climate offers maximum value for signatories on a global level, including the ability to:

Demonstrate Leadership	• Demonstrate leadership in advancing practical solutions and strategies addressing climate change
Increase Visibility	• Align a climate change business strategy with a UN-led initiative that has high visibility
Showcase Action	• Communicate publicly a company's actions on climate change
Share Best Practices	• Share best and emerging practices and gain access to the experiences of peers
Shape Policy Agenda	• Shape the climate change policy agenda and call for policy frameworks that reward leadership and innovation

Companies can join Caring for Climate by endorsing the Caring for Climate Statement. To join, the highest-level executive should sign a copy of the Caring for Climate Statement or submit a letter indicating support of the Statement and send it to the Caring for Climate secretariat at caring4climate@unglobalcompact.org and please "cc" fivepointspresident@gmail.com

Principles of Responsible Management Education

1. Principle 1 | Purpose

We will develop the capabilities of students to be future generators of sustainable value for business and society at large and to work for an inclusive and sustainable global economy.

2. Principle 2 | Values

We will incorporate into our academic activities, curricula, and organisational practices the values of global social responsibility as portrayed in international initiatives such as the United Nations Global Compact.

3. Principle 3 | Method

We will create educational frameworks, materials, processes and environments that enable effective learning experiences for responsible leadership.

4. Principle 4 | Research

We will engage in conceptual and empirical research that advances our understanding about the role, dynamics, and impact of corporations in the creation of sustainable social, environmental and economic value.

5. Principle 5 | Partnership

We will interact with managers of business corporations to extend our knowledge of their challenges in meeting social and environmental responsibilities and to explore jointly effective approaches to meeting these challenges.

6. Principle 6 | Dialogue

We will facilitate and support dialog and debate among educators, students, business, government, consumers, media, civil society organisations and other interested groups and stakeholders on critical issues related to global social responsibility and sustainability.

United Nations
Economic Commission for Africa

THE AFRICAN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT MAP

This brochure illustrates "at a glance" the support that the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA) is providing to its member States towards the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

ECA's support currently falls under four broad areas to support evidence based policymaking for the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as well as Africa's own development vision, Agenda 2063 -The Africa We Want. These efforts are namely in the areas of:

- i) Data collection and analysis;
- ii) Technical support, advisory services and capacity development;
- iii) Development of knowledge products, facilitating knowledge-sharing as well as South-South & triangular cooperation; and
- iv) Reporting and follow-up support on the implementation of the SDGs and Agenda 2063

These areas will continue to progress as ECA responds to the evolving needs and demands of its member States in Africa.

To situate the SDGs in the African context, in January 2015, the African Union Heads of State and Governments adopted Agenda 2063, a strategic vision, for inclusive growth and sustainable development in Africa which was developed before Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development was endorsed. In September of the same year, Africa also signed Agenda 2030, the global framework for achieving sustainable development which largely accommodated Africa's voice, presented through the Common African Position. Africa's agenda does not contradict the SDGs, it is more specific and more focused on the transformative policies that can make a difference for the continent.

Given the levels of congruence, synergies of both agendas have been harnessed in an integrated Regional Indicator Framework which is being finalised. This will allow for a coherent approach to implementation, monitoring and evaluation as well as facilitate efficiency and effectiveness of reporting on both agendas. Going forward, ECA will promote the combatting of illicit financial flows to help finance the implementation of both agenda.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

The Sustainable Development Goals Report is submitted every year to the High-level Political Forum (HLFP), drawing on data collected and reported by country on an annual basis. The first Sendai Framework Progress Report is expected in 2019 and will exceptionally cover trends in implementation for the two biennial cycles 2015-2016 and 2017-2018. In 2019, reporting on progress in achieving the SDG targets related to disaster risk reduction and in implementing the Sendai Framework, will be shared at the High-level Political Forum and Sixth Global Platform for Disaster Risk Reduction respectively.

FOR THE GOALS

PARTNERSHIPS: WHY THEY MATTER

What's the goal here?

To revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development

Why?

In 2015, world leaders adopted the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development that aims to end poverty, tackle inequalities and combat climate change. We need everyone to come together—governments, civil society, scientists, academia and the private sector— to achieve the sustainable development goals.

Why does this matter to me?

We are all in this together. The Agenda, with its 17 Sustainable Development Goals, is universal and calls for action by all countries, both developed countries and developing countries, to ensure no one is left behind.

Greater effort

 United Nations
Economic Commission for Africa

THE AFRICAN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT MAP

This brochure illustrates "at a glance" the support that the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA) is providing to its member States towards the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

ECA's support currently falls under four broad areas to support evidence based policymaking for the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as well as Africa's own development vision, Agenda 2063 -The Africa We Want. These efforts are namely in the areas of:

- i) Data collection and analysis;
- ii) Technical support, advisory services and capacity development;
- iii) Development of knowledge products, facilitating knowledge-sharing as well as South-South & triangular cooperation; and
- iv) Reporting and follow-up support on the implementation of the SDGs and Agenda 2063

These areas will continue to progress as ECA responds to the evolving needs and demands of its member States in Africa.

To situate the SDGs in the African context, in January 2015, the African Union Heads of State and Governments adopted Agenda 2063, a strategic vision, for inclusive growth and sustainable development in Africa which was developed before Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development was endorsed. In September of the same year, Africa also signed Agenda 2030, the global framework for achieving sustainable development which largely accommodated Africa's voice, presented through the Common African Position. Africa's agenda does not contradict the SDGs, it is more specific and more focused on the transformative policies that can make a difference for the continent.

Given the levels of congruence, synergies of both agendas have been harnessed in an integrated Regional Indicator Framework which is being finalised. This will allow for a coherent approach to implementation, monitoring and evaluation as well as facilitate efficiency and effectiveness of reporting on both agendas. Going forward, ECA will promote the combatting of illicit financial flows to help finance the implementation of both agenda.

Five Points Youth Foundation Founder Ambassador Diane E. Watson Honored during International Women's Month

Ambassador Diane Edith Watson, retired U.S. Congresswoman and former California Senator, was "virtually" hosted and honored during the SouLA Collective's "HerStory" Women's Appreciation ceremony on March 30, 2021. She attended as guest of H.H. Andrew Williams, Jr., President of Five Points Youth Foundation (FPYF), which was founded in 1984 as the Diane E. Watson Semi-Pro Sports Authority, before changing its name in 1991.

The occasion at the Leimert Park 5 Star Market was sponsored by the Cycle of Success and co-hosted by women whom Amb. Watson has influenced throughout her career. That included Princess Tshepi Motloung, representing the Batlokwa Nation based in Gauteng, South Africa and Los Angeles native, the legendary Delphine "SilkyD" Williams, Universal Hip Hop Museum (UHHM) Entertainment Director and FPYF International Goodwill Ambassador. The event was also attended by Sir James Bailey, Free LA High School educator and founder of TheLivingWellTour that was launched at FPYF in 2016.

Both also joined in the 2017 awarding of a Certificate of Appreciation to Ambassador Watson, along with SilkyD, Daude Sherrills and Charles D. Sharp (not pictured), CEO of the Black Emergency Managers Association (BEMA) International visiting from Washington, D.C. for TheLivingWellTour event. Joining them was LATTTC Department of Architecture and Environmental Design Professor Marcela Oliva and Founder of the EncounterLA Community Think Tank and Advisory Board.

Interfaith, Neighborhood and Business Collaborative Glocalizing Sustainable Development Goals to Build Safe & Sustainable Communities and Cities For All

Five Points Youth Foundation and LATTC Architectural & Environmental Design Department EncounterLA Community Think Tank and Advisory Board associates advocate the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact via Local Networks with respect to human rights (inclusive of indigenous rights), labor, environment and anti-corruption to “leave no one behind”.

We mobilize interfaith, neighborhood and business collaboratives localizing all of the Sustainable Development Goals by building a community resiliency network of safe and sustainable communities and cities (SDG#11) for “at promise youth” taking climate action (SDG#13) pursuant to: Promise Zones; Opportunity Zones; City of Los Angeles Sustainability pLAN; OurCounty Sustainability Plan; & Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) Regional Transportation Plan 2016-2035 in preparation for the Crenshaw-LAX Transit Line, Airport Metro Connector, 2028 Los Angeles Olympics and LA 2050 pursuant to Tourism4SDGs.org, Youth4GlobalGoals.org and #Envision2030.

<http://FivePointsYouthFoundation.org>

We form and manage strategic alliance collaboratives via Sustainable Development Goal #17.17 to encourage and promote effective public, private-public and civil society partnerships that enhance the global partnership for sustainable development, complemented by local multi-stakeholder partnerships that mobilize and share knowledge, expertise, technology and financial resources, to support the achievement of the sustainable development goals in underserved communities and for people with unmet needs

Challenges facing the 1,000-year Millennium Development Goals, now during its Sustainable Development Goals phase, the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, looming hunger pandemic and increasing climate chaos, can only be overcome with the support of Royal, Indigenous, Tribal, Traditional, Faith-based and Community Leaders, working with the private sector, aid organizations, philanthropists, financial institutions, governmental agencies, you and me, that improve the quality of life on Earth and of Earth, to heal the world and “leave no one behind”.

Five Points Youth Foundation is working with a multilingual, multicultural, multinational, and multi-regional Ad Hoc International Advisory Board of Goodwill Ambassadors, Advocates and Activists (AHIABGA) throughout the Earth:

- to recruit, empower and unify 10,000+ new interfaith and civil society members of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC)
- through new and existing UNGC Local Networks, local and online social networks, broadcast and interactive new media channels
- that develop, promote, publicize, mobilize and manage interfaith, neighborhood and business collaboratives (SDG #17)
- to build climate-smart (SDG #13) safe and sustainable communities and cities (SDG #11)
- to empower citizen activism, "people's diplomacy" and citizen journalism
- to “glocalize” the Sustainable Development Goals during the Decade of Action and Delivery of the SDGs
- in alignment with the First Ten Year Implementation Plan of the African Union Agenda 2063 Flagship and Legacy Projects such as the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) Agreement
- pursuant to U.N. Habitat New Urban Agenda, Sendai Framework on Disaster Risk Reduction, Youth4GlobalGoals and #Envision2030
- during this Fourth Industrial Revolution (4IR)

Worldwide Collaborative to "Glocalize" the Sustainable Development Goals United Nations Global Compact January 1, 2021 Communication on Engagement

To The General Public:

I am pleased to confirm that Five Points Youth Foundation and its Ad Hoc International Board of Goodwill Ambassadors, Advocates and Activists (AHIABGA) reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights (inclusive of Indigenous Rights), Labor, the Environment and Anti-Corruption.

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken and is taking to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders and the general public using our primary channels of communication.

We mobilize and promote multi-stakeholder collaboratives through online webinars, conferences and workshops localizing all of the Sustainable Development Goals by building an interfaith, neighborhood and community resiliency network (SDG #17) of safe and sustainable communities and cities (SDG#11) taking climate action (SDG#13) during this Fourth Industrial Revolution and United Nations Habitat III New Urban Agenda to leave no one behind, including our youth, those with disabilities and unmet needs pursuant to YouthforHumanRights, SDG Happiness Pyramid, Youth4GlobalGoals and #Envision2030.

We invite you all to join the United Nations Global Compact Local Networks as we grow and build a worldwide collaborative that accelerates the African Continental Free Trade Area Agreement, other Flagship and Diaspora Legacy Projects during this first Ten Year Implementation Plan (2014-2023) of the African Union Agenda 2063 and U.N. Decade of Action and Delivery on the SDGs throughout the Diaspora, which, in fact, includes all human beings on Earth: <https://bit.ly/SAGAUNGCRRegistration>

Support the United Nations Global Compact & Caring For Climate Campaign 2015-2020

International Advisory Board * Egypt & Middle East Goodwill Ambassador and Media Advisor Rehab Shawky Saleh Abdelhah

Goodwill
Ambassador
& Media Advisor
Rehab Shawky
Saleh Abdelhah

Thanking you, in advance for your heartfelt efforts to help all the people of the world "make this world a better place" for ourselves and the generations to follow as we "Heal the World" for our children and Mother Earth to "Leave No One Behind" by localizing the Development Goals worldwide to empower our youth through YouthforHumanRights.org

I commit myself to the FPYF 2015-2020 Caring for Climate Campaign to build a worldwide community resiliency network by growing awareness about and membership in the United Nations Global Compact Academy and expanding its Local Networks in support of Sustainable Development Goal # 11 by substantially increasing the number of cities and human settlements adopting and implementing integrated policies and plans towards inclusion, resource efficiency, mitigation and adaptation to climate change pursuant to Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction.

Join our Youth4GlobalGoals.org strategic alliance to identify and register civil society stakeholders (ngos, nonprofits, business associations, labor organizations, academic institutions and cities) and business enterprises with the United Nations Global Compact to build a Caring for Climate worldwide community resiliency network during this Decade of Sustainable Energy for All and Ten Year Implementation Plan of A.U. Agenda 2063.

We are working together to advocate Sustainable Development Goals 2030 # 17.16 and 17.17: Multi-Stakeholder Partnerships to "Leave No One Behind," by

- Enhancing the global partnership for sustainable development, complemented by multi-stakeholder partnerships that mobilize and share knowledge, expertise, technology and financial resources, to support the achievement of the sustainable development goals in all countries, in particular developing countries, underserved, displaced and homeless communities and people with unmet needs worldwide..
- Encouraging and promoting effective public, public-private and civil society partnerships, building on the experience and resourcing strategies of partnerships, including Gig Economy, Home-Based, Franchise and Small-Medium-Enterprise businesses during this Fourth Industrial Revolution.

La Global Foundation Celebrated International Day of Friendship on 30th July 2020

LA Global Foundation celebrated International Day of Friendship on 30th July 2020. International Day of Friendship is synonymous with Bonding With One Another. The Celebration was to mark friendship from all over the globe, near or far. Through friendship, by accumulating bonds of camaraderie and developing strong ties of trust, we can contribute to the fundamental shifts that are urgently needed to achieve lasting stability, weave a safety net that will protect us all, and generate passion for a better world where all are united for the greater good.

On International Friendship Day, people celebrate the relationship that exists between them. No matter how old or young we are, friends are what keep us going. They are always around to lighten the mood when tensions are high or as an emotional support when we are feeling too low. One can always count on one's friends, no matter what. And the biggest privilege in life is being the same for someone else.

By celebrating the International Day of Friendship, LA Global Foundation was following the objectives of United Nations to:-foster a culture of peace through education;-promote sustainable economic and social development;-promote respect for all human rights;-ensure equality between women and men;-foster democratic participation;-advance understanding, tolerance and solidarity;-support participatory communication and the free flow of information and knowledge;-promote international peace and security.

International Dignitaries participated from US, Sweden, Dubai, Poland, Nigeria, UK, California and India. It was an Epic Movement, with the World Delegates and Leaders Creating awareness on Global Harmony, Peace, Integrity, Equal Rights and Sustainable Development Goals to promote the Goals of United Nation.

The event was moderated by Dr. Meenakshi Sawhney, Founder President LA Global Foundation and LA Global Economic Trade Council. Vote of thanks given by Respected Gaurav Gupta our Global Ambassador of LGF...

Interfaith, Neighborhood and Business Collaborative Glocalizing Sustainable Development Goals to Build Safe & Sustainable Communities and Cities For All

Five Points Youth Foundation Ad Hoc International Advisory Board of Goodwill Ambassadors and associates worldwide advocate the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact via Local Networks with respect to human rights (inclusive of indigenous rights), labor, environment and anti-corruption to “leave no one behind”..

We mobilize interfaith, neighborhood and business collaboratives localizing all of the Sustainable Development Goals by building a community resiliency network of safe and sustainable communities and cities (SDG#11) taking climate action (SDG#13) in a “whole community” Asset Based Community Development model for the New Urban Agenda via Tourism4SDGs, Youth4GlobalGoals and #Envision2030: 17 goals to transform the world for persons with disabilities during this Fourth Industrial Revolution.

Tourism4SDGs 2020-2030 Quantum Leap

We form and manage strategic alliance collaboratives via Sustainable Development Goal #17.17 to encourage and promote effective public, private-public and civil society partnerships that enhance the global partnership for sustainable development, complemented by local multi-stakeholder partnerships that mobilize and share knowledge, expertise, technology and financial resources, to support the achievement of the sustainable development goals in underserved communities and for people with unmet needs.

17 PARTNERSHIPS

PARTNERSHIPS: WHY THEY MATTER

What's the goal here?

To revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development

Why?

In 2015, world leaders adopted the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development that aims to end poverty, tackle inequalities and combat climate change. We need everyone to come together—governments, civil society, scientists, academia and the private sector— to achieve the sustainable development goals.

Why does this matter to me?

We are all in this together. The Agenda, with its 17 Sustainable Development Goals, is universal and calls for action by all countries, both developed countries and developing countries, to ensure no one is left behind.

Greater effort
is needed to align development cooperation with country-
defined development priorities and results, particularly in fragile countries

Enjoy 3rd Annual (free) Graffiti "Paint-A-Thon" Exhibit At Five Points Youth Foundation on August 31, 2019

On August 31, 2019 from 12 noon to 7pm, West Coast Entertainment Director for the Universal Hip Hop Museum (UHHM), Legendary Los Angeles DJ SilkyD Williams and UHHM Graffiti Artist Eric "King Cre8" Walker host the 3rd Annual (free) Graffiti "Paint-A-Thon" Exhibit at Five Points Youth Foundation. Community members of all ages are invited to come out to watch the RTN (Rocking the Nation) Crew and dozens of aerosol artists create dazzling, inspiring and courageous graffiti art along 500 feet of alley walls behind 1820 W. Florence Avenue 90047.

Hundreds have come out to watch the Paint-A-Thon artists at work for the past two summers, while enjoying food, fashion, fun, world famous artists and open mic sessions. Hundreds more have come by in ones, twos and dozens at a time just see the most recent mural of Ermias Asghedom, popularly known as "Nipsey Hussle" that went up a few months ago and stroll along the 500 feet of murals displayed. Several popular hip hop and reggae videos have been filmed.

Artwork from King Cre8 and many of the 2019 artists will be available for sale on t-shirts and other imprinted items to benefit the artists and benefiting Five Points Youth Foundation, a qualified California 501c3 non-profit. This crowdfunding kick-off to beautify the adjacent outdoor community venue and sound stage studio as a tourist magnet for travelers, now, is in preparation for the Crenshaw-LAX Transit Line opening in 2020 and the community at large, year-round. Come out to be among the first to choose and order the gear you want to enjoy or online: MahdahUrf.com Call 323-752-1180 for details

Inter-Faith, Neighborhood and Business4Peace Community Resiliency Collaborative For Safe Communities & Cities

Five Points Youth Foundation is now working to build interactive new media and social networks to promote "people's diplomacy" and citizen journalism to advocate, demonstrate, promote and replicate social justice and community resiliency solutions pursuant to the U.N. Habitat New Urban Agenda and Sustainable Development Goal # 11

People living in the most high-risk and conflict- affected communities are also most vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change whether in small island states like the Caribbean, Africa or Europe, Asia, Australia, the Americas or displaced refugees and Skid Row homeless. We are all human beings living on One Earth needing safe communities.

During the 70th Anniversary of the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights let's take #29 (RESPONSIBILITY) to develop and apply the knowledge to join our 2015-2020 Inter-Faith, Neighborhood and Business4Peace Local Networks strategic alliance to identify and register 4,000+ civil society stakeholders (ngos, nonprofits, business associations, labor organizations, academic institutions and cities) and 1,000 new small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) with the United Nations Global Compact to build a Caring 4 Climate worldwide community resiliency network for safe communities and cities:

We advocate the United Nations Global Compact Local Network Membership Campaign for Sustainable Development Goal # 11 by 2020, substantially increase the number of cities and human settlements adopting and implementing integrated policies and plans towards inclusion, resource efficiency, mitigation and adaptation to climate change, resilience to disasters, and develop and implement, in line with the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015-2030, holistic disaster risk management at all levels in support of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda through BUSINESS4PEACE Local Networks Multi- Stakeholder Partnerships #17.16 and #17.17 to "Leave No One Behind" by:

Enhancing the global partnership for sustainable development, complemented by multi-stakeholder partnerships that mobilize and share knowledge, expertise, technology and financial resources, to support the achievement of the sustainable development goals in all countries, in particular developing countries, underserved, displaced and homeless communities and people with unmet needs worldwide..

Encouraging and promoting effective public, public-private and civil society partnerships, building on the experience and resourcing strategies of partnerships, including Freelancer, Home-Based, Micro- and Small-Medium-Enterprise businesses

Thanking you, in advance, all the activists, ambassadors and people of the world committed to "Make That Change" for themselves and the generations to follow using Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) Collective Impact tools and solutions, to Heal the World for our children and our Earth's Biosphere pursuant to the U.N. Habitat New Urban Agenda and Sustainable Development Goal # 11

Yaya Bailey

StrongBraveYaYa.com

Born in Los Angeles, California to a musical and spiritual family, Yair "Yaya" Agu-San Bailey grew up watching and learning from his father Sir Bailey, a songwriter/musician and grandfather Philip Bailey of the renowned group Earth, Wind & Fire, as they wrote and performed music together. From an early age, Yaya learned of the power of music and its influence when spoken with love, passion, honesty and raw compassion towards those who seek to find the light within themselves, and towards those who share the same love for music. Yaya has collaborated with his friend DJ Young Slade, son of rapper/producer Lil' Jon, established TruSound's Locco Lingo as the new "Good Life", and has had a cameo in friend, Willow Smith's video "Summer Fling".

Aaron Fresh

AaronFreshOnline.com

Formerly signed to Def Jam via Nick Cannon's NCredible Entertainment, Aaron Fresh has been making a lot of noise in the underground R&B scene for the past few years. Dividing his childhood years between the States and Trinidad and Tobago, the Chicago native and gifted singer blends Caribbean sounds into African-American soul music. His 2013 single "Real Lovin'" broadened his already growing fan base.

Thanks Ambassador,

I am totally for this. Let me know the amount TLWT/ArtLifeLive would need to contribute for the booth space and or Dome Exhibit Hall. Considering our recent conversation regarding the guest coming to FPYF this Saturday we could exhibit our response to urban food deserts as well. Plus The Angels Tekhen for FPYF can be screened as well.

I will reach out to Ken, Rickey and Jackie about editing time/space with interns. We still need to shoot Marcela and Wayne's ArtLifeLive interviews.

Giving Thanks Always,

Sir

EITHER OR BOTH Taste of Soul AND/OR Kingdom Day Parade (Leimert Park venue) in collaboration with KJLH, Stevie Wonder's station (including Illya Dailey for input) and Adrian Dove (Kingdom Day Parade) IF THE DOME CAN BE FULLY KITTED BY THEN, DON?)

ENCOUNTER AUGUST 2017

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Marcela Oliva

Subject: ENCOUNTER AUGUST 3RD 2:30 TO 4:30 Design a New Model for Open Spaces in LA

ENCOUNTER TEAM:

It is happening again, many opportunities are flourishing from our network and we are excited for the momentum we are gaining on this movement.

Agenda:

1. Update from AMER I CAN and Five Point Youth Foundation Work
2. Leimbert Park "Drop In Centers and Community Gathering Parks" presentation made at Leimbert Vision Theater.
3. Discussing the next projects for next semester "Alternative Materials and Recyable Materials for Green Idea House"
4. Update National Park Service Grant "Open Lot to Alley + Trail to Open Space = Conservation"
5. Presentation of Mobile Stage Venues for Mickey Stevenson Summer Project Proposa (This is who Mickey is https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/William_%22Mickey%22_Stevenson)
6. Continue SOM Regenerative LA and RemakeLA conversation and input

We had a fabulous event and we want to thank all of our partners and Pando Populus.

Here is some media the event generated

Here is a link to the news, they made a mistake with my name. They fixed it this morning. It aired 6 times.

<http://losangeles.cbslocal.com/2017/07/15/death-alley-cleanup/amp/>

<http://citizensjournal.us/local-architect-part-plan-reimagine-south-central-12/>

In addition, there is a great momentum. The City of LA has identified hundreds of open lots they could donate for projects. They are working with a big architecture firm called SOM and they are looking for input of what to do with these lots. SOM also made a small video about South LA and we are also covered in this video. SOM is part of our partner network.

THE FUTURES OF DEATH ALLEY SUMMARY OF DESIGN CONCEPTS

v20170727

TEAM 1 – represented by Paul Ruffin

“Communiversity”

Initial Challenge:

Transitional

Diversity

Job Creation

Take today’s Economy and transition it....Use the

Glut of old buildings & abandoned real estate

Green Tech / Blue Tech: air, water & energy

Retrofit for good habitation

Make them Generators of income

Affordable housing – sweat equity

Provide innovation & technologies

Transitional labs of all kinds, e.g., grow algae for fuel & food

Financing: LA County is paying people to manage their lots; why not pay the community instead?

TEAM 2 – represented by J.R. Johnson / Eugene Shirley

Pando Market creates a new barter market, not based on $$ economy but based on pre-capitalistic goods distribution. Extra stuff plus entertainment = repurposing & sharing.

There are lots of “leftovers” (food, furniture, etc.) that can be reused instead of discarded.

Create connections to provide a corporate channel for excess of goods and needs such as labor. Provide DIY opportunities & education. No dollars are exchanged; your currency is you skill.

- Kitchen
- Classes
- Events
- Healthy Restaurant

Each Market has to serve a particular, local geography.

Five Points Youth Foundation

ThisPlaceLA.wordpress.com/vibes/Global-Compact

TEAM 3 – represented by Joe Conner

“Why?” joins the community together. Every idea has to be circular, coming back around to sustain. Regardless of where you start in the project, you join the whole:

- Skill / talent
- Support, through technology, providing resources, Ted talks, documentation
- Relaxation
- Production

The focal point is FPYF, promoting environmental and technical methods that are spread through media. Making money is a key goal.

TEAM 4 – represented by Alex Malloy

This concept is a youth camp for the victims of violence, whether gun violence or domestic violence. The focus is on healing and coping through storytelling and nature. Youth who come through the camp become mentors for the community as they heal and mature.

TEAM 5 – represented by Wayne Fishback

“This Place L.A.”

- 1) Impact
 - a. FPYF can increase the impact through Education
 - b. Amer-I-Can is a critical partner
- 2) Revenue
 - i. Reforming the way things are done can produce revenue, e.g., bringing materials from demolition sites. CalGreen initiative requires that 65% of all materials have to be recycled. This can be a business.
 - ii. E-commerce from project to project is sustainable
- 3) Food / Recycling / Other
 - a. Community gardens can be a revenue stream

Any program has to give people a sense of their own strength.

TEAM 6 – represented by Hugo Perez / Amanda Bonilla

Build bridges between communities. Let them learn from each other, and it will help to combine them into a better environment. Celebrate diversity!

TEAM 7 – represented by Marcos Beltran

1 Radius focuses on homelessness. Architecture helps maintain facilities that have been abandoned, can create an urban family that can be turned into labs and serve the population.

Five Points Youth Foundation

ThisPlaceLA.wordpress.com/vibes/Global-Compact

River Labs have helped with the allocation of land from the city for specific purposes. If we spread this idea into homeless shelters, we should be able to provide shelter within a mile radius of where the need is.

TEAM 8 – represented by Brad Carson / John Bollinger / Anthony Vasquez / Nery Cividanis

Urban Eco Farms: The model is food coops, where 1 member = 1 vote. A member gets an equity share through time, talent or taxes.

The Alley is a joint venture between the residents of the community and the participants who need the support. The project needs to be 1) sustainable; 2) replicable; 3) scaleable, so the 5,000 alleys that were closed after the riots can benefit from the model.

There needs to be considerable outreach to break the cycle of poverty (lack of economic opportunity), which leads to not being educated, which leads to more crime and then more poverty. The project needs to turn Unemployment to Employment; Lack of Education to Education.

Anthony talked about gardens = jobs, from fish nutrients to drip irrigation.

John B's focus is production: tying everything together to grow into a more stable whole.

Nery's focus is distribution of product.

TEAM 9 – represented by Ricardo Chavez / Les Hamasaki

"Hub Nursery" to be converted from old warehouses. Would create training and jobs for local people. Emphasis would be on reducing waste, using what we have. For example, cuttings from existing / excess plants could be sold for $4 each, earning money for the hub at a price that is affordable.

The nursery would be a sort of genetics laboratory, where people could learn to recycle waste as mulch and find other innovative solutions to urban problems.

Training sites don't have to be centralized or large; micro sites can be leased or rented throughout the city. Hydroponics can be started in apartments, schools, and churches.

TEAM 10 – represented by Eugene Shirley / Pando Populus

"Rejuvenate L.A."

Use the government land to serve veterans by creating jobs for the future, transitioning from military. Create jobs for the mind, body and soul by using vacant properties as "skills incubators." Provide co-working space. Space can be used to host start-up opportunity jobs, and to provide education to hone individual skills and to learn technology skills. Teach to write resumes, gain other types of useful information that can be used in existing and new ways.

ABOUT THE HIP HOP ARCHITECTURE CAMP™

The Hip Hop Architecture Camp™ is a one week intensive experience, designed to introduce under represented youth to architecture, urban planning, creative place making and economic development through the lens of hip hop culture. The Camp is based on the "4C's" which are Creativity, Collaboration, Communication and Critical Thinking. During the camp, students are paired with architects, urban planners, designers, and hip hop artists to design unique visions for their communities which include the creation of physical models, 3D digital models and the recording of a Hip Hop Architecture music track and video summarizing their designs.

ENCOUNTER TEAM:

Hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving!

Friendly reminder to our regular meeting for the first Thursday of each month ENCOUNTER DEC 1ST, plus please join us and see attached for your review: Projects for "Be Inspired Competition", Promise Zone SLATE Z, Five Points Youth Foundation and City of Los Angeles Federated Data Science Models

Also save December 7th, we will go into the "Living Alley" and share ideas with the community using virtual reality and innovative solutions.

Living Alleys with over 5000 plus alleys near abandoned lots in the City of Angeles, the "Living Alley" is a new model to utilize alleys and convert them into spaces and experiences that bring health, food, recreation, educational workshops, story-telling, mural making, parks and others in the surrounding communities. The Living Alleys are like a stage for multiple purposes where activities can come and go, based on the community's needs and demands. Living Alleys are repaved using sustainable materials and colors, in addition to simple and high end design fencing materials and solar energy lighting fixtures. Nearby abandoned sites support the activities and store the cargo container with the furniture, technology devices, products, materials and educational gadgets. The containers are retrofitted and designed with nature graphics wraps and 3d printing trellises. The community will be able to go to our resource 3d model site and choose multiple options from our library to modify it and customize it.

On December 1st we will welcome new members and FOCUS on the "Living Alley" Project.

Thank you and look forward

ENCOUNTER OCTOBER 2016

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Marcela Oliva

Date: Thu, Sep 29, 2016 at 8:51 PM

Subject: Re: ENCOUNNTER LA Eco Alley Brain Storm

Thank you Team for such an incredible, energetic and passionate conversation about such important issues in our communities.

Please review this 3 minute video to remind us how delicate and important is the issues we are confronting.

"Place matters"

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=saREW_BfxwY

We concluded

January 7th we will have the "listening event" ECO ALLEY

Pando Event.

The program of the event is still forming.

We agree

The methodology and events required to engage the communities will require a second meeting.

We identified the financial support for the movement for our "angel investor"

1) Grant Writer.

The Grant Writer will also do observation and recording of the Eco Alley as an example inside the Grants.

2) Public Relation Person and Community Outreach

3) Web and Social Media Developer including crowd funding.

4) Project Manager for the Eco-Alley to look at permits and City Regulations

We were informed a new very important variable that will require a second meeting

1) Five Points Youth Foundation Building has a line of credit to fix the building and the store front.

Meeting Oct 4th 11:45 to 12:45

Five Points Youth Foundation

ThisPlaceLA.wordpress.com/vibes/Global-Compact

ENCOUNTER LA October 6th meeting will have a discussion about best practices and methodology to engage the communities. We might not require a second meeting.

After our discussion, it became very clear to me how our methodology is new and different. I know everybody at the table want, respect and know how important is to empower the community and to also have all stakeholders have an ACTIVE voice and participation.

OUR

ECO, SMART and RESILIAN community engagement process:

- 1) Document and virtualize existing condition using a robust spatial data; built environment, natural systems/solutions and economic forces
- 2) Present ideas, options, materials and case studies to the community through analog, web based and virtualization
(just like we do with a regular client)
- 3) Community participates as informed doers in "gamification" and avatar ready virtual environments
- 4) Participate in short and long workshops, program courses to design and build their environments using virtual reality and digital fabrication

Your thoughts and advise are important.

ENCOUNTER JUNE 2016

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Marcela Oliva

Date: Mon, May 30, 2016 at 10:33 AM

Subject: ENCOUNTER MEETING JUNE 2nd. 3:00 to 5:00 Why Architecture Matters? and DaFUNction

Hi Team:

So glad we can meet this month.

So much we need to catch up with each other and our efforts.

Come check out our exhibit "Why Architecture Matters?" which includes proposals,

"Peace Poles" for Future Cities

"Pavilion One" for Los Angeles World Fair

"Domes and Trellises" for World Peace One

Please see DRAFT attached flyer for this exhibit.

(It has a mistake, it is 2016 and not 2017)

I am traveling and have no access to computers.

We have some new partners that will join us and will synergize us even more.

Here is a link to our site and do not forget to register and remind ourselves who we are as part of this network.

www.encounterla.com

Mark also your calendar and also join us to a very unique and wonderful event called DaFunction a community fest that shows the talent in our communities and how we can improve them from within. The location will be at Vermont Square Library. See attached flyer also.

<http://ronfinley.com/the-ron-finley-project/>

ENCOUNTER LA will have a booth and I will be glad to have flyers, posters or anything you want to display your organization and share it.

Sincerely and look forward to see you all

ENCOUNTER MAY 2016

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Marcela Oliva

Date: Mon, May 2, 2016 at 1:38 PM

Subject: ENCOUNTER meeting this week CANCEL :(

Hi ENCOUNTER Team:

Much momentum is going on in the City and congratulations to many of you for all your efforts and collaborations.

Please check our events links to catch up with our group ENCOUNTER>

<http://encounterla.com/upcoming-events/>

We believe in education that serves our community by the community and the ENCOUNTER is a living testimony of how this network exploded.

Due to logistics and efficiency we will only meet every other month. The focus of the ENCOUNTER is now very clear. You are all our "Community Advisors" that feed the LATTC architecture and environmental design program with design and mapping projects.

Here is a reminder of our mission:

ENCOUNTER is a new model that helps connect the classroom to the outside world and the outside world to the classroom. We transform the built environment through projects that are designed, built, maintained and exhibited by local talent. We use simulation and virtualization to look at complex ecosystems. We believe in healthy communities that thrive, sustain & resist.

Kindly mark your calendar June 2th 2:00 to 4:00

ENCOUNTER APRIL 2016

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Andrew Williams Jr <

Date: Thu, Feb 25, 2016 at 1:35 PM

Subject: Re: ENCOUNTER w o r k i n g meeting March 3rd 2016.... POPULATE WITH NEW MEMBERS BY MARCH 3?

Marcela,

We have members on the Facebook ENCOUNTERS group that want to attend the March 3 meeting via Google Hangout. Can you and/or Richard Nelson set it up asap so they can be added?

Http://fb.com/groups/EncounterThinkTank

Over a dozen say they have registered with encounterla.com but only a few are included.

Can Elliot give us a count of how many are actually registered and populate the roster accordingly?

I have access to photos for all and will be happy to forward them if a list is provided.

Please advise,

Andrew Williams Jr

United Nations Global Compact COMMUNICATION ON ENGAGEMENT (COE) December 31, 2014 – December 31, 2015

To: International Board of Advisors,
Goodwill Ambassadors, Stakeholders and the General Public

I am pleased to confirm that Five Points Youth Foundation, Inc., reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact for 2015 and commitment to leaving no one behind by motivating and managing multi-stakeholder partnerships to promote and implement the Sustainable Development Agenda 2030 within the United States and Developed Countries as well as underserved communities and peoples worldwide. We welcome feedback on its contents (please use email address below).

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders and the general public using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely yours,

Highlights of recent evaluation

Five Points Youth Foundation, Inc. adapts the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Integrated Whole Community Model locally and nationally for community resiliency, as well as the United Nations Global Compact Local Networks internationally in support of Caring for Climate, Business 4 Peace and other U.N. Initiatives 2015-2020 via Global Partnerships for Development using collaborative arts and technology to address the Post-2015 Sustainable Development Agenda and Decade of Sustainable Energy for All (SE4All) throughout the Diaspora and the Earth, in compliance with the African Union Convention on Preventing and Combating Corruption as to African Union 6th Region and Agenda 2063, with full recognition and respect for the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, Internally Displaced Persons, Refugees, the “homeless” women and children of the world.

Beginning January 1, 2015, via Global Partnerships for Development (MDG #8) protocols, Five Points Youth Foundation began aggressive research, analysis and distribution of information and contents to attract and mobilize an international audience and potential stakeholder pool to recognize and support the Post-2015 Sustainable Development Agenda.

Implementation Methodologies

For the first time ever, all members of the United Nations have launched a worldwide campaign that leaves no one behind. But NONE of the goals can be achieved without Peace on Earth.

Five Points Youth Foundation advocates “regenerative” solutions: processes that restore, renew or revitalize their own sources of energy and materials, creating sustainable systems that integrate the needs of society with the integrity of nature. Whereas the highest aim of sustainable development is to satisfy fundamental human needs today without compromising the possibility of future generations to satisfy theirs, the end-goal of regenerative design is to redevelop systems with absolute effectiveness, that allows for the co-evolution of the human species along with other thriving species.

Adhering to the theme of Regenerative Economic Theory we are driving our projects and capital campaign through Zero based budgeting (identification of a task or tasks and then funding resources to complete the task independent of current resourcing) within our own network, rather than source and spend thousands of dollars on “anonymous” and “uncertain” crowdsourcing campaigns.

We are committed to making mission investments to further our philanthropic goals. They include any type of investment that is intended and designed to generate both a measurable social or environmental benefit and a financial return

We are assembling a multi-lingual international advisory board for the Five Points Youth Foundation ngo campaign to support local global networks via the United Nations Global Compact to build community resiliency worldwide 2015-2030, beginning with the September 21, 2015 (International Day of Peace) through the end of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals (December 31) 2015.

Arrangement for Capacity-building and Technology Transfer

We will promote the development and use of information and communications technology infrastructure, as well as capacity-building, particularly in least developed countries, landlocked developing countries and small island developing States, including rapid universal and affordable access to the Internet. We will promote access to technology and science for women, youth and children. We will further facilitate accessible technology for persons with disabilities.

United Nations Global Compact

2015 Communication on Engagement (COE) and 2020 Plan of Action

Thanks to all of you! We are working together to advocate the United Nations Global Compact Caring For Climate Campaign 2015-2020 as a demonstration model for Sustainable Development Goals # 17.16 through Business, Faith-Based & Neighborhood Multi-Stakeholder Partnerships, specifically:

17.16 Enhance the global partnership for sustainable development, complemented by multi-stakeholder partnerships that mobilize and share knowledge, expertise, technology and financial resources, to support the achievement of the sustainable development goals in all countries, in particular developing countries, underserved communities and people with unmet needs worldwide [emphasis added] to “leave no one behind”.

People living in the most high-risk and conflict-affected places are also most vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change. All year long, we have building, managing and growing a strategic alliance to identify and register 4,000+ civil society stakeholders (ngos, business associations, labor organizations, academic institutions and cities) and 1,000 new small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) to the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact to build a Caring 4 Climate worldwide community resiliency network, through business for peace local networks 2015-2020.

Achieving that milestone and sustaining momentum would also give a voice to The Unheard Voices (TUV) in developing countries and in marginalized communities worldwide year-round and annually thereafter in support of the transition from the Millennium Development Goals 2015 to the Sustainable Development Agenda.

Thanking you, for your heartfelt efforts to help all the people of the world achieve a collective better future for themselves and the generations to follow. We look forward to an active and productive campaign throughout the rest of this decade. Please feel free to contact me directly at any time to discover ways we can work and network together.

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that Five Points Youth Foundation, Inc., supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following way(s);

- demonstrating, expanding and replicating community resiliency through
- neighborhood empowerment & economic development,
- to preserve cultures, promote education and encourage wealth creation models at the local level to impact neighborhoods, tribes, villages, towns and cities.
- using the Federal Emergency Management Agency Integrated Whole Community Model that localizes the Post-2015 Business Architecture Structure

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's effort to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,

New York, NY 10017 USA

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that [name of the organization] supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact to support and participate with the Five Points Youth Foundation 2015-2020 United Nations Global Compact Local Area Networks Caring for Climate Campaign.

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,

We Support the United Nations Global Compact The Ten Principles

The UN Global Compact's ten principles in the areas of human rights, labour, the environment and anti-corruption enjoy universal consensus and are derived from:

- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights AND Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples
- The International Labour Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work
- The Rio Declaration on Environment and Development
- The United Nations Convention Against Corruption

The UN Global Compact asks companies to embrace, support and enact, within their sphere of influence, a set of core values in the areas of human rights, labour standards, the environment and anti-corruption:

Human Rights

- Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
- Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Labour

- Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
- Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labour; and
- Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment

- Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Anti-Corruption

Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Economic Development * Education * Empowerment Engagement * Entrepreneurship

Social Entrepreneurship

Social entrepreneurship is the process of pursuing innovative solutions to create and sustain social value. We relentlessly pursue opportunities to serve this mission, while continuously adapting and learning. We draw upon appropriate thinking in both the business and nonprofit worlds and operate in all kinds of organizations: large and small; new and old; religious and secular; nonprofit, for-profit, and hybrid, locally, nationally and globally.

Neighborhood Empowerment and Economic Development

Economic development generally refers to the sustained, concerted actions of policy makers and communities that promote the standard of living and economic health of a specific area. Economic development is also referred to as the quantitative and qualitative changes in the economy. Such actions can involve multiple areas including development of human capital, critical infrastructure, regional competitiveness, environmental sustainability, social inclusion, health, safety, literacy, and other initiatives.

STREAAAM Education Initiatives

STEM education is an acronym for the fields of study in the categories of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. “R” represents “rivers” and the whole acronym reflects “Water” as the basic necessity for all life on Earth. We consider Art and Architecture to be core components in schooling from kindergarten through college to improve competitiveness in technology development. It has implications for workforce development, national security concerns and immigration policy and our commitment to “regenerative” development solutions. We embrace Music as the Universal Language of Humankind

Youth, Women, At-Risk and Unmet Needs Empowerment Programs

Empowerment refers to increasing the spiritual, political, social, educational, and/or economic strength of individuals and communities.

Civic Engagement, Corporate Social Responsibility and Community Resiliency

Civic engagement is a means of working together to make a difference in the civic life of our communities by developing the combination of skills, knowledge, values, and motivation to make that difference.

March 2010

Dear UN Global Compact Participant,

Climate Change has emerged as one of the most pressing challenges of our times. It increasingly affects the poor and vulnerable – threatening all aspects of development. As a key stakeholder in this global crisis, the business community is mobilizing, understanding that any meaningful progress must involve the private sector – acting individually and collectively in partnership with governments, civil society, and other key interests.

The Caring for Climate initiative is designed to provide a strategic platform for companies to address climate change. Endorsed by more than 370 companies from 65 countries, this leadership platform assists companies in the development of effective climate change policies while also providing a channel for the business community to contribute inputs and perspectives to key governmental deliberations.

In its next phase of development, Caring for Climate seeks to build on the momentum generated in the past years to (i) advance mitigation efforts and promote the diffusion of innovative low-carbon technologies in particular in developing markets and as well (ii) enhance the understanding of the role of business in adapting to the impacts of climate change.

All Global Compact companies are encouraged to join the Caring for Climate initiative. A company's decision to endorse the Statement follows the Global Compact's established leadership model and requires CEO-level support. To indicate your support for the Statement, please send an email to climatechange@unglobalcompact.org indicating your endorsement. Please note that there is no membership fee, and that no prior level of performance is required. Endorsing companies commit to undertake serious efforts to address climate change, and to report progress in the spirit of continuous improvement.

For more information, including the list of current signatories, please see our website at: www.unglobalcompact.org/Issues/Environment/Climate_Change.

I hope you will consider joining Caring for Climate.

Yours sincerely,

United Nations Global Compact Caring for Climate to build Community Resiliency

WE SUPPORT

Caring for Climate

Business leaders around the world realize that climate change and environmental degradation pose important new risks and opportunities for their companies' competitiveness, growth and development.

Through innovation and long-term investments in energy efficiency and low-carbon technologies, business has the solutions to turn the climate challenge into market opportunities.

The UN Global Compact, the UN Environment Programme and the secretariat of the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change invite all business participants – learners and leaders with proven track record of commitment to climate action – to join Caring for Climate by signing the Caring for Climate Statement.

Caring for Climate offers maximum value for signatories on a global level, including the ability to:

Demonstrate Leadership	• Demonstrate leadership in advancing practical solutions and strategies addressing climate change
Increase Visibility	• Align a climate change business strategy with a UN-led initiative that has high visibility
Showcase Action	• Communicate publicly a company's actions on climate change
Share Best Practices	• Share best and emerging practices and gain access to the experiences of peers
Shape Policy Agenda	• Shape the climate change policy agenda and call for policy frameworks that reward leadership and innovation

Companies can join Caring for Climate by endorsing the Caring for Climate Statement. To join, the highest-level executive should sign a copy of the Caring for Climate Statement or submit a letter indicating support of the Statement and send it to the Caring for Climate secretariat at caring4climate@un.org. and please "cc" fivepointspresident@gmail.com

Caring for Climate

“CARING FOR CLIMATE: THE BUSINESS LEADERSHIP PLATFORM”

A Statement by the Business Leaders of the Caring for Climate Initiative

Since business leaders from around the world first came together to issue this statement in 2007, the magnitude and urgency of the climate challenge has become more apparent. Climate change is a momentous threat to development, to peace and security, and to market stability. While the pace of action by governments, businesses and society at large has increased, our efforts, individually and collectively, must be accelerated further if the threat of catastrophic climate change is to be removed effectively. It is with this in mind that we renew our call to the business community to make a lasting commitment to climate action now.

WE, THE BUSINESS LEADERS OF CARING FOR CLIMATE:

RECOGNIZE THAT:

1. Climate Change is an issue requiring urgent and extensive action on the part of governments, business and citizens if the risk of serious damage to global prosperity, sustainable development and security is to be avoided.
2. Climate change poses both risks and opportunities to businesses of all sizes, sectors and regions of the world. It is in the best interest of the business community, as well as responsible behavior, to take an active and leading role in deploying low-carbon technologies, increasing energy efficiency, reducing carbon emissions and in assisting society to adapt to those changes in the climate which are now unavoidable.

COMMIT TO:

3. Taking further practical actions to improve continuously the efficiency of energy usage and to reduce the carbon footprint of our products, services and processes, to set voluntary targets for doing so, and to report publicly and annually on the achievement of those targets in our Communication on Progress-Climate.
4. Building significant capacity within our organizations to understand fully the implications of climate change for our business and to develop a coherent business strategy for minimizing risks and identifying opportunities.
5. Engaging more actively with our own national governments, inter-governmental organizations and civil society to develop policies and measures to provide an enabling framework for business to contribute effectively to building a low-carbon and climate-resilient economy.
6. Continuing to work collaboratively with other enterprises both nationally and sectorally, with our value-chains, to set standards and take joint initiatives aimed at reducing climate risks, assisting with adaptation to climate change and enhancing climate-related opportunities.
7. Becoming an active business champion for rapid and extensive climate action, working with our peers, employees, customers, investors and the broader public.

EXPECT FROM GOVERNMENTS:

8. The urgent creation, in close consultation with the business community and civil society, of comprehensive, long-term and effective legislative and fiscal frameworks designed to make markets work for the climate, in particular policies and mechanisms intended to create a stable price for carbon.
9. Recognition that building effective public-private partnerships to respond to the climate challenge will require major public investments to catalyze and support business and civil society led initiatives, especially in relation to research, development, deployment and transfer of low-carbon energy technologies and the construction of a low-carbon infrastructure.
10. Vigorous international cooperation aimed at providing a robust and innovative global policy framework within which private investments in building a low-carbon economy can be made, as well as providing financial and other support to assist those countries that require help to realize their own climate mitigation and adaptation targets while achieving poverty alleviation, energy security and natural resource management.

AND WILL:

11. Work collaboratively on joint initiatives between public and private sectors and through them achieve a comprehensive understanding of how both public and private sectors can best play a pro-active and leading role in meeting the climate challenge in an effective way.
12. Invite the UN Global Compact to promote the public disclosure of actions taken by the signatories to this Statement and, in cooperation with UN Environment Programme and the secretariat of the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change communicate on this on a regular basis.

United Nations Global Compact Cities Programme

A framework for translating the Global Compact Principles into day-to-day urban governance and management.

The Global Compact Cities Programme (or Cities Programme) is the urban component of the United Nations Global Compact; the world's largest corporate responsibility initiative.

The United Nations Global Compact recognises that cities, in particular, have the potential to make enormous strides in creating sustainable societies – where economic, ecological, political and cultural issues are integrated and advanced.

To that end, the Global Compact Cities Programme is dedicated to the promotion and adoption of the Global Compact's Ten UN Principles by cities, and provides a framework for translating the principles into day-to-day urban governance and management.

In the spirit of the United Nations Global Compact, the Cities Programme focuses on collaboration between all levels of government, business and civil society – to enhance sustainability, resilience, diversity and adaptation within cities and in the face of complex urban challenges.

The Cities Programme supports a holistic approach to sustainability that considers, plans for and measures impact across four social domains: the economic; ecological; political; and cultural.

Administered by an International Secretariat based at the Global Cities Institute at RMIT University in Melbourne, Australia, the Global Compact Cities Programme provides support, guidance and recognition to participating cities.

The Cities Programme offers three levels of engagement: Signatory, Leader and Innovating. Whilst all city and region participants are Global Compact signatories, the subsequent levels recognise and foster sustainability leadership – city leaders implementing the Ten Principles in the administration, planning and development of their city or region – in partnership with leaders in other sectors.

All cities and regions may choose to engage at the Leader and Innovating levels in the same period of becoming a Global Compact participant, or at a later date. The categories are outlined in the follow section.

1. Signatory

In a letter to the UN Secretary-General from the highest level city leader, a Signatory City commits to the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact, endeavours to enact and promote those principles in city management, and encourages businesses in the city to join the UN Global Compact. They also commit to Communicate on Engagement...read more

2. Leading

Cities or regions that engage with the Cities Programme at the Leadership-level are drivers of positive urban change. Such cities or regions generally have a dedicated sustainability plan or work within the framework of a comprehensive urban plan that has a holistic approach. Their work extends beyond the standard, administrative or service role of government. These cities or regions consider the future directly, are conscious of their roles as civic leaders and facilitators, and are intent on building resilient, sustainable and vibrant cities and regions.

Leading cities share their achievements and challenges with the broader Cities Programme network. This can be done through contributing case studies or elements of their reports for publication, participating in events hosted by the Cities Programme or partners, and engaging academia with their work. Engagement at this level is generally without a fee, however cities can choose to engage direct and extended support from the International Secretariat through financial contribution to research costs...read more

3. Innovating

At the Innovation level, the highest level of engagement in the Cities Programme, a city or region is recognized for addressing a complex or seemingly intractable issue or set of issues within the city or region. This is done through a multi-year project. Whilst focused on resolving a specific issue or transforming a complex situation, these projects are holistic. All dimensions of that community and region — the ecological, economic, political and cultural domains — have been considered in the development of projects.

These projects have a transformative quality. They are managed cross-sectorally, engaging government, business and civil society in the development and implementation of the project. The project has clear monitoring and evaluation processes. At this level, dedicated support and recognition is provided by the Cities Programme Secretariat. The project is documented; and learning from this project is shared across the Cities Programme network and more broadly. A fee is associated with this level of engagement. This fee can be used to provide research support to the specific Innovating City project...read more

Please Note: All cities and regions are signatories. All cities can access Cities Programme's resources and tools. Cities can participate at the three levels simultaneously.

United Nations Global Compact Local Networks Plan of Action 2015-2020

Conflict and instability not only impact people and the environment, but also pose risks to all parts of the business sector. Business for Peace is a platform of over 130 leading companies from 37 countries dedicated to catalyzing collaborative action to advance peace.

By joining Business for Peace, companies will be able to:

- Better identify and manage business risks and opportunities while reducing operational costs
- Engage in public-private dialogue to establish local priorities and implement projects
- Align business strategies and operations with good practice from across the globe
- Share best and emerging practices and learn from the experiences of peers
- Demonstrate leadership and receive recognition for advancing practical solutions

Companies who join Business for Peace commit to:

- Paying heightened attention to the implementation of the UN Global Compact Ten Principles in high-risk and conflict-affected areas
- Take action to advance peace, either individually or in collaboration with others
- Annually communicate on progress

Recognizing that local ownership and knowledge are vital to driving change, Business for Peace has adopted a locally-driven approach. Business for Peace works to develop the capacity of Global Compact Local Networks to support participants in their efforts to conduct responsible business practices and advance peace. 18 Local Networks have already joined this growing movement, including: Canada, Colombia, Egypt, Germany, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Israel, Mexico, Nigeria, Pakistan, Republic of Korea, Sri Lanka, Sudan, Turkey, Uganda, Ukraine and United Kingdom.

Dear Friends,

This Saturday I will facilitate a meeting to help envision a network of cooperative economic enterprises in South Los Angeles—From Recycling, Gardening, Farming, to Industry..., connected to the Alley Project.

Cooperative Development—a Working Meeting
Facilitated by Mary Sutton, Collective REMAKE
December 10, 2016 • 3pm
9103 So Western Ave 90047

To create jobs and sustainable economic ventures in South Los Angeles.

This meeting is to begin to define, and put on paper, the ideas for cooperative enterprises that have been generated, their relationship to the Alley project and how to move forward. We will work with the business model canvas to brainstorm on value, purpose, customers, relationships, partnerships, costs and revenue.

If you have a business concept, please come prepared to describe your idea in five minutes or less. Print out a one-page, or less, description for the group if possible.

The 2-hour session will include an introduction to worker cooperatives and principles, a visual relationship exercise, and an interactive business mapping brainstorm.

Also on that day.

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that Five Points Youth Foundation, Inc., supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following way(s);

- demonstrating, expanding and replicating community resiliency through
- neighborhood empowerment & economic development,
- to preserve cultures, promote education and encourage wealth creation models at the local level to impact neighborhoods, tribes, villages, towns and cities.
- using the Federal Emergency Management Agency Integrated Whole Community Model that localizes the Post-2015 Business Architecture Structure

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's effort to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,

Andrew Williams, Jr.
President
