FAMILY CLEAN

COOKING

SUPPORT PROGRAM

Help Our Women and families keep their stoves burning!

SUMMARY

With the global COVID 19 pandemic crises and its negative impacts on the socio-economic reality of the working poor; More families are faced with extreme situation of hardship, loss of job and livelihood with limited alternatives.

The Access Bank Family Clean Cooking Support program will help deliver the much needed household cooking fuel to thousands of women and working poor across select communities in Nigeria to benefit from the free delivery of KiKe Biofuels that will help them through the difficult period.

Access Bank National Clean Cooking Family Support Program Delivers 5,000 Liters of Kike Biofuels to support more than 2,500 families during COVID 19 lock down

THE PROBLEM

- Harsh economic situation for women and families during COVID 19 Lock down
- Disruption in essential services for households including cooking fuels
- Household income dried up and may result in starvation or deaths
- Increase or hike in cooking fuel may lead many families to seek dangerous & hazardous alternatives
- Women and children are most impacted and many may never recover without an intervention
