

Report on International Youth Day celebrations

Youths Enterprise Development & Innovation Society (YEDIS), in partnership with Osogbo Livingspring Lions Club, Nigeria, celebrated the 2021 International Youth Day on 12th August 2021. The speakers advised the youth to embrace entrepreneurship with innovative business ideas to fight hunger and promote Nigeria's economic development.

Chief Rafiu Akinpelu Olaore, Director-General, YEDIS, stated that It takes strength, willpower, and tremendous focus to bring a vision to life successfully. Still, once it succeeds, you will be significantly rewarded.

More so, Mr. Olasunkanmi Olatubosun, the president, Osogbo livingspring Lions club, itemized the impact of NGOs in community development and also implored the youth to support the Government and civil societies in eradicating poverty.

At the event, the CEO of New Outfit Boutique, Mrs. Olubunmi Olalekan, and Mrs. Mary Adebayo shared their life stories and stressed that doing business is the best option for the youth nowadays.

While speaking, Chief Olaore reiterated the YEDIS commitment to support the teaming youth through free innovative business ideas, vocational training, regular business support, funding sources advice, etc.

The event was held at YEDIS Office Suite B10, 1st floor, Ebony Plaza, Ayetoro, Osogbo, Osun State, Nigeria, with seventy-seven participants, including fifty-six girls.

International Youth Day celebrations