Communication on Engagement (COE)

September 15, 2021

Siris Youth Foundation is pleased to confirm its support of the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment, and Anti-Corruption. We have strict guidelines as well as measurement of outcomes in place. In our 2020/21 Corporate Sustainability Report below, we describe our actions to continually improve the integration of the Global Compact and its principles into our business, strategy, culture, and daily operations. We also commit to share this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Siris Youth Foundation's Communication of Engagement for the Year 2021 AD

1. Bethanchowk Donation Campaign 2020

Date: December 2020

Video Youtube: <https://youtu.be/-uZCTtxX9tk>

Problems:

- Less than 35% of Bethanchowk children are literate.
- School enrollment is extremely low and dropout rates are very high.
- More than 80% of people in Bethanchowk live below the poverty line.
- Most of the women here are illiterate.
- Most of the children are suffering from malnutrition and water-borne diseases.

"AT THE AGE OF ENJOYING CHILDHOOD, THEY'RE GIVING BIRTH TO OTHER LIVES "

Reason: Early Marriage

Cause:

Children shivering with cold is a common scenario at Bethanchowk village. Unfortunately, the people of Bethanchowk have no reach to first aid and basic medicines. Unawareness about Family planning, Menstrual and personal hygiene led to other critical problems

We conducted Awareness of family planning, Negative aspects of early marriage, Knowledge of personal and menstrual hygiene. We had 50+ donors including individuals and organizations.
