To the kind attention of the Relationship Management Team,

I am pleased to reaffirm Bank Audi's support of the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

Carrying out our Communication on Progress, we opted to submit an online format, where we highlight the initiatives we took at hand, aiming at integrating the Global Compact and its principles into our business, strategy, culture and daily operations amid challenging period prevailing in Lebanon on several fronts, where health, economic and financial sustainability have been priorities.

The various actions enclosed in our submission define the evolution of our CSR journey, guided by our longstanding core values, where our CSR strategy is embedded in our corporate understanding of sustainability. Our initiatives are aligned with private public partnerships that subscribe to the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDG), addressing issues that are relevant to our communities, seizing innovative opportunities that contribute to the SDGs, and generally reducing sustainability risks.

We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Responsibly yours,

Khalil Debs
Deputy Group CEO
