

COMMUNICATION OF ENGAGEMENT

The International Non Governmental Organization « bon't worry » specialized in preventing violences on women and children, hereby expresses its highest commitment to spread the UNGC Ten Principles amongst our fellows and helped people

Bont Worry has significantly increased, both in quantitative measurement of results (more that 1008 helped people wich have significantly ameliorated their conditions of abused or distressed gender violece victims)

We have contacted more that 40 Enterprises and spread the UN Global Compact Ten Principles on Sustainability amongst them, with great results and feedback, Bon't worry is actvely engaged in international rescue, both in Africa, Europe and America, where the organization is maintaining its HQ with greatest involvement of stakeholdership, engaged in important sharing of the values of overall sustainability, SDGs pursuance and commitment and UNGC Ten Principles' best adherence.

Also the budget has significantly increased, joining the level of 340.000 Euros from the previous ordinary regular budget.

As Always bon't worry maintains the highest level of coomittment and dedication to the best practices and compliance to the EU/UNGC sustainability frameworks, as well as supporting disadvantaged overseas individuals with a strict supply chain control as far as the quality and the quantity of humanitarian goods and services provided.

Thanks to the overall staff and Directional Council committment, bon't worry is deemed to increase in its sustainability capacity with the most committed service of the UN/SDGs and UNGC Ten Principles.

Yours very truly,

Bo Guerreschi

bon't worry President
