Communication on Engagement

I am pleased to confirm that RCST Rockfield College of Sciences and Technology, Switzerland, express its continued support for the United Nations Global Compact and renews its ongoing commitment to its ten principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

With this commitment, we express our intent to advance these principles, within our influence and will make clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to take part in the activities of the UN Global Compact where appropriate and feasible through, for instance, participation in Country/Local Networks; involvement in specialized initiatives and work streams; engagement in partnership projects; and providing commentary to participating institutions on their communication of progress

RCST is a private-independent university (non-profit-organization), have international presence and collaborative opportunities with academic institutions and private organizations that uniquely helped us in sharing and communicating the ten principles of UNGC Initiatives.

Within RCST, we also promote values such as equal opportunity environment, gender equality, transparency and accountability, we also promote these values with our partners organizations. We have expressed these value-ideas and other efforts into RCST institutional policies on anti-corruption, partner due diligence to ensure compliance with our own values and standards, whistle blowing, anti-harassment, safeguarding and environment & sustainability.

As an institution for higher education, RCST is devoted to the Advancement of Knowledge that adding value to society and shaping future leaders to become Responsible Global Citizens. These commitments are entrenched in RCST Mission and Values that are fundamental to our identity as an learning institution for the development of the total man

In this Communication of Engagement, we are fully committed to upholding the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact. We look forward to continuing our support for the Principles of the Global Compact in the years to come.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Jeremiah Abdulrazak Agboola
President & Executive Dean
