Impact Review

2020 / 2021

We can't help everyone but everyone can help someone.

www.ajialouna.org

January 20,2023

To our stakeholders,

On behalf of Ajjalouna Organization, I am pleased to confirm that Ajjalouna is a proud member of the United Nations Global Compact Network and reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labor, Equality, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We do our utmost and commit to showcase the efforts of our network year-round through donor reports, impact updates and reports, and social media. We pledge to share our efforts with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Over the course of 28 years of hard work and generous donations, Ajjalouna's mandate has been to serve the local Lebanese community as a whole along with the immigrants' communities, without any restrictions based on religious sect or nationality. Ajjalouna, which is a multi-sectorial NGO, extended its scope of projects and activities to include programs in social affairs, development, education and training, women empowerment, crisis relief efforts, in addition to healthcare and medical services.

We take great strides to ensure that our activities and programs confidently comply with our commitment to the UN SDGs and dedication to alleviating hunger and poverty, providing access to health care and medical services, and promoting education and women empowerment.

Sincerely yours,

Lina Zaim Dada
Founder and President of Ajjalouna Organization

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

“AJIALOUNA” ORGANIZATION IS A NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION ENGAGED IN CHARITABLE, CULTURAL, SOCIAL, HEALTHCARE, AND EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS. FOUNDED IN BEIRUT ON MARCH 1, 1995, AJIALOUNA FUNCTIONS UNDER THE DECREE NUMBER 41/AD.

Since its establishment, Ajialouna’s mandate has been to serve the local Lebanese community as a whole, without any restrictions based on religious sect or nationality; a unique sanction in Lebanon. Ajialouna’s Board of Directors is comprised of seven women in addition to an administrative body of over 120 women volunteers.

Ajialouna began its work over 27 years ago in the city of Beirut based on the belief of shaping a better future for our children. They did so through the implementation of multiple projects including:

School Health

Health Education Program

Textbooks for Public Schools

Orphan and Widow Sponsorship

Ajialouna introduced new centers and programs drawing on the perseverance and the exceptional spirit of solidarity demonstrated by its members, staff and its female volunteers.

Ajialouna has helped

thousands of families across Lebanon over the course of 27 years

After 26 years of hard work and generous donations, Ajialouna expanded its scope of activities and projects to include programs in social affairs, development, training, and healthcare services.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

AFTER 26 YEARS OF HARD WORK AND GENEROUS DONATIONS, AJIALOUNA EXPANDED ITS SCOPE OF ACTIVITIES AND PROGRAMS TO OPERATE UNDER THE FOLLOWING DEPARTMENTS:

Ajialouna employs women, all of which have expertise in various professional fields which include, but are not limited to engineering, medicine, pharmacy, finance, education, project management, and business administration.

Ajialouna is ISO 9001:2015 certified for its Management System of Welfare Activities

ED Certified: Ajialouna is certified as equivalent to a U.S public charity (Valid by December 2021)

These women in collaboration with 61 employees, predominantly female breadwinners of their households, Ajialouna has become the successful organization it is today.

These departments are funded by grants provided by generous individuals, companies and financial sponsors as well as Ajialouna's fundraising activities and events.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION: MISSION & VISION

Ajjalouna supports underprivileged individuals disregarding nationality and age: Widows, orphans, students, poor families and the elderly, believing that all people deserve to have equal access to good health, social and food security and educational opportunities; improve their standard of living and increase their awareness to strive towards education, health, and financial stability.

Ajjalouna cooperates and coordinates with various associations and institutions in Lebanon and abroad, acting as a bridge between donors and those in need.

We are committed to improving the standards of living of disadvantaged persons from different social groups and aim to increase the number of beneficiaries across Lebanon.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION: AJIALOUNA & UN GLOBAL COMPACT

Ajialouna continues to reflect its show of support to the Global Compact and to the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) adopted by all member states of the United Nations in 2015 as a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet and ensure that all people enjoy peace and prosperity by 2030¹.

We take great strides to ensure our activities and programs across the social, economic, education and health sectors bring about tangible results and demonstrate leadership and dedication to alleviating hunger and poverty, providing access to health care and promoting education and the empowerment of women.

HEALTHCARE - MEDICAL HOTLINE PROGRAM

Today, with the generous and kind donation of a specific funding party, Ajjalouna extended its community of healthcare services into remote/rural areas of families from no-income to low-income socioeconomic background via a Mobile Health Clinic. This project serves as part of the activities

Ajialouna is involved in and is in line with Ajjalouna's mission.

During these site visits, The Mobile Clinic team provided comprehensive high-quality service to all age groups (Children, adolescents, adults, and elderly).

Services include the following:

- Medical assessment of acute complaints such as fever, cough, abdominal pain, etc.
- Management of acute conditions such as otitis, tonsillitis, cystitis, etc.
- Screening of non-communicable diseases such as diabetes mellitus, and hypertension
- Screening for mental health conditions
- Management of chronic diseases
- Reproductive healthcare services such as family planning
- Health education on different topics including self-hygiene, exercise, healthy diet, etc.

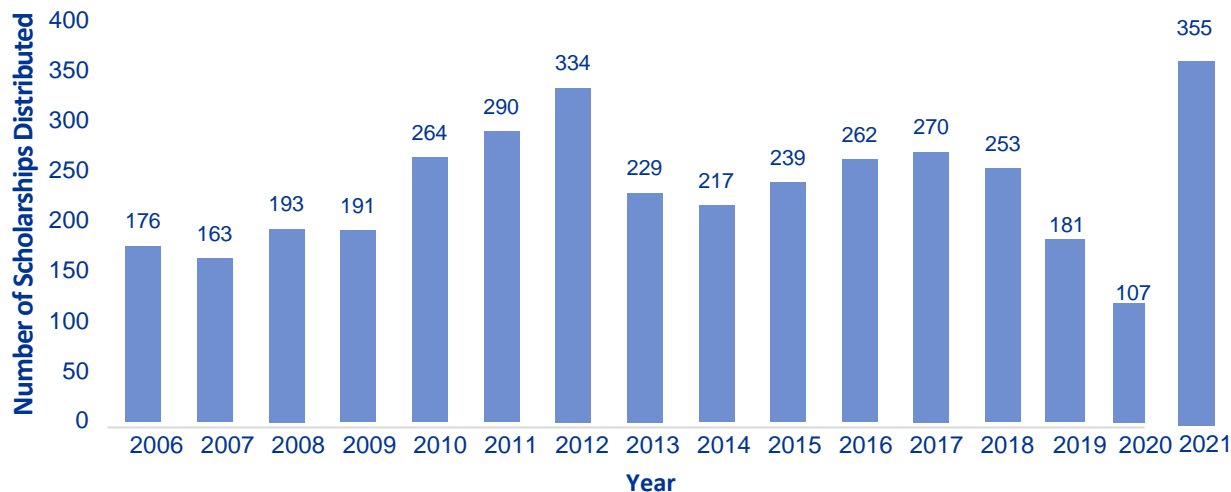

Until June 2021, more than 5,000 patients have been examined and treated

3. EDUCATION

AJIALOUNA'S PROMINENT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM "TOMOOH" WAS LAUNCHED IN 2006 IN COLLABORATION WITH PEPSICO INTERNATIONAL & TARGETS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 18-22 IN LEBANON

- ❖ TOMOOH promotes social development through education and targets underprivileged students who are academically gifted, providing them with academic scholarships to pursue their higher education.
- ❖ The payment is settled directly with the educational institution by Ajialouna.

Tomoooh Student Scholarship Program Data (2006-2022)

In 2020-2021, Tomoooh program assisted 355 students in private and public universities.

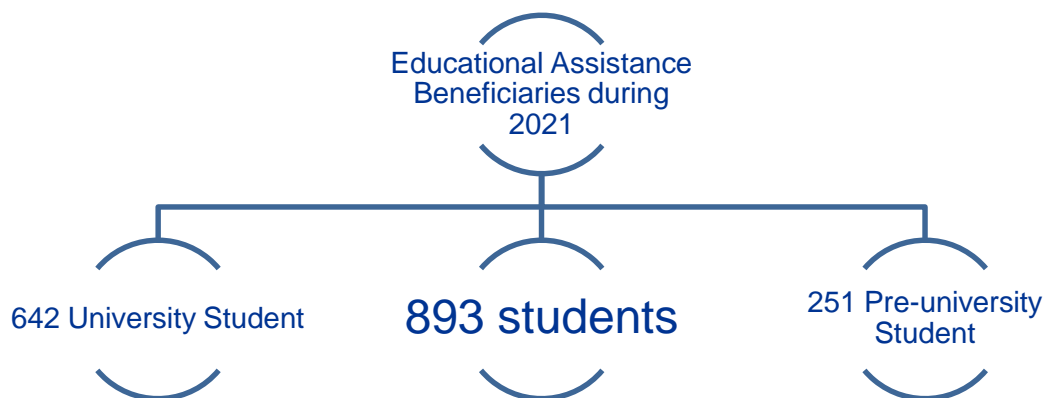

3. EDUCATION

In addition to Ajialouna's TOMOOH University Scholarships Program, Ajialouna also provides educational assistance across the university, vocational school, and pre-university school levels to those demonstrating financial need.

- ❖ Ajialouna seeks to sponsor social development through education; thus, it assists students demonstrating financial need with partial or total assistance in order pursue their higher education.
- ❖ Partial or total assistance is settled directly with the educational institution by Ajialouna.

Ajialouna also launched “Dedication to Education-Tablets Campaign” that distributed over 160 Tablets to children to continue their remote learning in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.

NOTABLE MENTIONS & AWARDS

AJIALOUNA HAS A REPUTABLE HISTORY OF WORKING WITH LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS, INSTITUTIONS AND INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, OPERATING AS A BRIDGE BETWEEN GENEROUS DONORS AND THOSE IN NEED

One of Ajialouna's notable affiliations is with the United Nations Global Compact "Zero Hunger" initiative. Launched by UN Global Compact Lebanon in 2017, the initiative drives commitment and action by all stakeholders, to end malnutrition in all its forms and realize inclusive, resilient and sustainable food systems. Appointed in February 2019, Ajialouna's founder and president, Dr. Lina Zaim Dada serves as the Zero Hunger Goal Leader on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) Council.

Dr. Lina Zaim Dada – Ajialouna's Founder and President, received the Peacemaker Award for Prosperity and Peace Summits in 2017 & the Arab Women Festival Award for Voluntary work in the same year.

Bronze Medal of Health Merit presented to Ajialouna Founder Dr. Lina Zaim Dada, issued and received from His Excellency President Elias Hrawi, President of the Lebanese Republic (1997).

Guinness World Record for the Longest Ramadan Iftar Table at 2,184 meters gathering 5,400 people from all over Lebanon(2017)

4. SOCIAL AFFAIRS

ESTABLISHED IN 1995, THE SOCIAL AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT INCLUDES THREE PROGRAMS THAT PROVIDE FINANCIAL, MATERIAL AND IN-KIND SUPPORT FOR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, UNDERPRIVILEGED FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS

- 439 Lebanese Families.
- 98 Syrian Families.
- 48 Palestinian Families.

ORPHANS and WIDOWS SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

Ajialouna plays the role of a mediator between the sponsor and the beneficiary. The sponsorship covers annual educational fees, healthcare and social benefits. This program is also dedicated to assist women who support their families. The social department annually helps more than 800 Orphans in need under this program. The program is financed by Zakat donations and other fundraising activities.

325

6. FUNDRAISING

WITHOUT THE GENEROUS SUPPORT OF INDIVIDUALS, COMPANIES AND AJIALOUNA'S FUNDRAISING ACTIVITIES, THE EXTENT OF OUR GROWTH AND OUTREACH WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN POSSIBLE

Support from our contributors comes in two forms: sponsorships & donations.

Sponsorships are joint projects between a contributor and Ajjalouna where we work hand-in-hand to improve the lives of those we help on a daily basis.

Donations are direct contributions from our support network that go to one of many of Ajjalouna's numerous charitable programs.

Our volunteers work tirelessly to advance the socioeconomic impact programs by tapping into our network of contributors through our fundraising team.

There is a deep sense of pride and satisfaction associated with charity; a sense of fulfillment that is overwhelming when initiatives are achieved in education, quality of life and saving the lives of so many people in the community.
