Proposal for a 10YFP Programme on Sustainable Buildings and Construction (SBC) Submitted to the 10YFP Secretariat

TITLE OF THE PROGRAMME: SUSTAINABLE BUILDINGS AND CONSTRUCTION PROGRAMME (SBC)
Rationale and background

The Sustainable Buildings and Construction Programme (SBC) contributes to the 10-Year Framework of Programmes on Sustainable Consumption and Production (10YFP on SCP). The 10YFP is a global framework of action to enhance international cooperation to accelerate the shift towards SCP. It develops, replicates and scales up SCP and resource efficiency initiatives, at national and regional levels, working to catalyse environmental degradation and resource use from economic growth, and thus increases the net contribution of economic activities to poverty eradication and social development.

- SBC aims at fulfilling of the 10YFP functions:
- to promote the added value of a sustainable consumption and production approach
 - to share information and tools to learn best practices
 - to increase cooperation and networking among all stakeholders
 - to foster integration of SCP into decision-making at all levels
 - to raise awareness and engage civil society, with a particular focus on the education system
 - to facilitate access to technical assistance, training, financing, technology and capacity building
 - to strengthen and make use of scientific and technological capacities
 - to promote the engagement of the private sector to achieve shift towards SCP
 - to foster innovation and new ideas, while increasing recognition of traditional knowledge.

Buildings and construction have major impacts on our environment. In its resource use (land, materials, energy, water), emissions (GHG, particulates, waste) and on biodiversity. These sectors can also play an important role in improving the environment by cleaning polluted areas and recycling not only its own waste streams but those of other sectors in its own production and consumption. In addition, buildings contribute to human health, safety and comfort. Construction activities provide employment and innovation opportunities for both genders and to the youth. The built environment represents an important share of national wealth. Thus, the SBC programme provides an excellent platform for contributing to sustainable consumption and production together with Sustainable Public Procurement, Consumer Information, Sustainable Tourism and Sustainable Lifestyles and Education programmes in a complementary way.

The overall aim of the programme is to achieve a situation, by 2030, where:

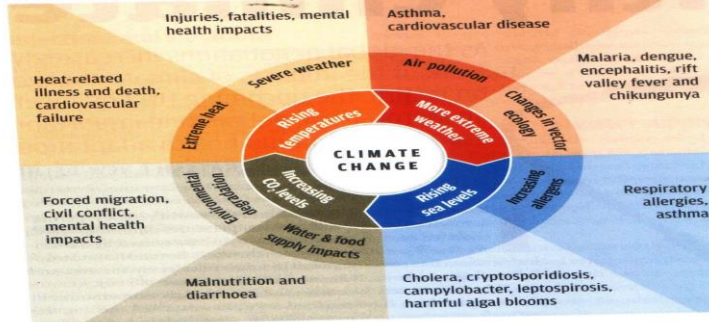

"All stakeholders involved in the planning, commissioning, design, construction, use, management and deconstruction of buildings have a common understanding of sustainable buildings and the knowledge, resources and incentives required to create, maintain and use them; structures that are healthy to live and work in, that responsibly utilize energy, water, land and other key resources, respecting environmental limits, and ultimately have a minimally adverse impact on the natural world, supporting social and economic development."

ARCILLA -UDYAMA-

Trust the framework you have forwarded is standardized one. Please have a thought for necessary thought for amendments, can be worked out to mutual benefit. Therefore your proposal, in general, is acceptable since this is meant for Climate variability and change adaptations and addressing poverty.

So far as working out a plan for National Presence, I am confident that with the kind of exposure I have on environment and ecology, development, research and academic institutions networking with local, regional and national, suitable linkage will be an easy task with right kind of intellectual investment. Hence we mutually can craft the development and business plan for India meeting larger goal.

The word "National Advisor" sounds more appropriate and should be adopted in place of "National Coordinator" for all purposes.

Going through Job Description, Agreement of Confidentiality and Consultancy Contract on Firm, I understand that these are a set of standard protocol, generally expected of, that can be amended to suit to mutual benefit.

That the relationship between these two shall be that of "Partners" and not of Employer & Employee or Agency and accordingly necessary amendments to phrases used shall be carried out and incorporated as "ARCILLA -UDYAMA-". As a corollary, in a broad term, both the success and failure of the venture shall be shared equally by both the parties after factoring for direct cost borne by each of the partners.

For your information, Udyama is a non profit making organization dedicated to development (tribal, coastal, rural or urban) with regard to enhancement of livelihoods, sustainable agriculture, natural resource management, food security, health, sanitation, education and for larger environmental sustainability, we can generate income and spend income accrued for the development and organization and for target population.

"ARCILLA" being the established entrepreneur with a large foot print, shall provide for start up venture capital necessary for India Operation.

RETHINKING CENTRALIZATION IN WASTE Consultation on De-Centralised Waste Management for Chennai

Last few months have seen an increased debate around waste management in Chennai. Various government resolutions, political statements, tenders, project proposals and policies have been in the news. The most recent has been the Corporations proposal to install two integrated waste management facilities at Kodungaiyur and Perungudi with incinerators. Unfortunately, such proposals are distant from addressing the crux of the problem - centralised waste management. We are yet again being offered a placebo. For real long lasting solutions we really need to rethink centralization in waste management.

Save Pallikarai Marshlands Forum, Ever Vigilant Residents Welfare Association, and Kaviarasu Kanadasan Nagar Welfare Association and Global Alliance for Incinerator Alternatives (GAI), invite you for a consultation that will address some of these issues facing waste management today. The consultation primarily aims at addressing the Sub: Thinking through the idea of University Community Linkage.

Dear Sir,

I would like to convey my sincere appreciation for your outstanding efforts at facilitating the ongoing dialogue on the subject cited above with several rounds of critical deliberations with academicians from various universities and colleges of Odisha, social activists and policy planners to help shape up our proposed initiative in the above direction.

I would like to note that these rounds of discussion on the theme has significantly foregrounded the thinking that though quality education has imparted marked boost towards professional growth of students and teachers in the contemporary digital age yet the perceptible gap in terms of addressing pressing concerns of the planet today in terms of community coherence, ecosystem, cultural biodiversity and global warming skewed development of urban space in the conceptual universe of the intelligentsia continues to be increasingly visible.

In the context of this, I would like to reiterate that Ravenshaw University and its constituent department of History herby express interest and willingness to be part of this mega initiative. Our commitment participation, as we have brainstormed, will be especially for doing more follow up research in these areas, policy advocacy, dialogue for framework development, debate for innovation and inclusion of course curriculum and discourses for strategic engagement for Agendas for 2030 which is one of the priorities of SDGs.
