

Part II. Description of Actions

Description of Actions of our Organization

- Our Organization Carlson Initiative for Peace and Human Rights has taken action in support of Global Compact in area of partnership with some organizations to promoting and respecting internationally proclaimed human rights. We have organized seminars for organizations to broaden their human rights knowledge as enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and in line with Global Compact and some of them has agreed to participate while we are still in talk with others.
- Our organization has also been engaging with Global Compact Local Network by attending and participating in their meetings when invited.

Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

Measurement of Outcomes of our Organizations

- The promotional efforts of our organization Carlson Initiative and Human Rights have produced prospective UN Global Compact participants.
- The expertise provided by our organization to further the efforts of Global Compact Local Network in our country has been the continuous engagement through supporting, contributing and active participation to issue platforms and workstreams of the Global Compact Local Network, all in realization of UN Global Compact Objectives.
- The UN Global Business participants with whom our organization engaged with has affirmed the UN Global Compact principles on human rights advocacy. The prospective participants have promised to do the same.
- Our organization is in process of formalizing partnership with our new participants to advance the UN Global Compact Principles