

Policy Statement of Thai Feed Mill Association

Enabling competitiveness of members. Enhancing environmental protection and supporting human rights and good governance

Competition: Cooperating with all sections in the livestock value chain to increase competitiveness by enhancing and supporting technology to achieve quality and international standards manufacturing.

Mitigating Environmental Impacts: Cooperating with government agencies, local and international social sectors to develop technology and innovation projects to mitigate environmental impacts, standards of which set by trading partners.

Human Rights: Opposing slave labor, forced labor and child labor. Supporting participation in enacting law, labor standards for local and international levels. Supporting upgrading labor, respect and protect human rights.

Good Governance: Supporting and promote fair business practices, transparency and responsibility.