Statement of continued commitment to the UN Global Compact and the Ten Principles

Emirates Environmental Group (EEG) emerged as a pioneering advocate for the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) within the Arabian Gulf region. Our involvement with the Global Compact initiative dates back to 2006 when I assumed the role of a Board Member, a position I held for two consecutive terms. During my tenure on the board, my mission was to facilitate the establishment of a strong UNGC presence in the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) Region. This objective led to the launch of the Global Compact GCC Local Network in 2008, which EEG hosted until the end of 2014, subsequently transitioning to the UAE Local Network.

Our unwavering dedication to sustainable development is a fundamental element of every message we convey and every endeavor we undertake. We actively champion the United Nations Global Goals for Sustainable Development and maintain close collaborations with various UN entities to foster sustainability awareness among our diverse stakeholders.

It is a source of immense pleasure and pride for us to maintain our long-standing participation in the United Nations Global Compact. We remain steadfast in our commitment to promote and advocate for the Global Compact Ten Principles within our network, spanning both the public and private sectors. Our primary focus centers on environmental sustainability and social responsibility, and in this pursuit, we have forged a partnership with our sister organisation, the Arabia CSR Network, to advance corporate responsibility and sustainability throughout the Arab Region. Our commitment extends to the principles of social sustainability, encompassing human rights, ethical conduct, accountability, and transparency.

This marks our fourth Communication on Engagement, building upon our activities in 2022 and 2023 as documented in our 2022 Annual Report (refer to Pages 38 till 45). Through this report, we reaffirm our enduring dedication to the Global Compact and its Ten Principles. We welcome any comments or feedback from the readers of this report, as we continue our shared journey towards a more sustainable future.
