

UN INDIA
VOLUNTEERS

Mumbai: On the occasion of the International Day of Non-Violence and Gandhi Jayanti, U.S. Ostwal English Academy, Nallasopara, Mumbai East organized a range of meaningful activities to commemorate Mahatma Gandhi's principles of peace and non-violence.

Students and teachers enthusiastically participated in various activities, such as handcrafting to promote creativity and self-expression. A cleanliness drive was organized, embodying the essence of cleanliness and hygiene that Gandhi emphasized. Poster making allowed the students to showcase their artistic skills and spread messages of non-violence.

A unique element of the celebration involved students recreating Gandhi's iconic look through makeup, symbolizing the spirit of Gandhi and his significant influence on the world.

Principal Kavita Dubey commended the efforts of both students and teachers, appreciating their dedication in honoring the legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and fostering the values of non-violence and peace within the school community. The event successfully instilled the ideals of Gandhi and highlighted the importance of non-violence in today's world.
