

UN INDIA
VOLUNTEERS

International day of Non Violence (Gandhi Jayanti) celebration

Ujjain: Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School Celebrates International Day of Non-Violence with Enthusiasm

Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School in Nagda, Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh, came alive with vibrant celebrations as the school commemorated the International Day of Non-Violence, coinciding with Gandhi Jayanti, on October 2, 2023. The event aimed to pay tribute to the ideals and philosophies of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, two prominent figures in India's struggle for independence and champions of non-violence.

Under the guidance of Principal Lt. Shikha Manoj Saxena, the school organized a series of activities that encouraged students to understand and embrace the principles of peace, harmony, and non-violence.

The day commenced with an engaging session where students and teachers participated in a "Gandhiji and Lal Bahadur Shastriji make-up" competition. The participants showcased their creativity by adorning themselves as the iconic leaders, imitating their distinctive styles. The competition not only fostered a sense of appreciation for the leaders' contributions but also provided an opportunity for the students to delve deeper into the lives and teachings of these great personalities.

Following the make-up competition, students and staff united for a cleanliness drive within the school premises. Inspired by Mahatma Gandhi's emphasis on cleanliness and hygiene, the participants enthusiastically swept, mopped, and cleaned various areas of the school, promoting the importance of cleanliness as an integral part of a peaceful and healthy environment.

To highlight the significance of non-violence, a thought-provoking skit was performed by the school's talented drama club. The skit depicted the struggles faced by Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri in their pursuit of independence and their unwavering commitment to non-violence as a means to achieve social and political change. The powerful performances left the audience captivated and inspired, reinforcing the enduring relevance of non-violence as a potent force for societal transformation.

Principal Lt. Shikha Manoj Saxena expressed her heartfelt appreciation to the students and teachers for their remarkable efforts in organizing and participating in the event. She emphasized the importance of commemorating International Day of Non-Violence and Gandhi Jayanti, stating, "It is crucial to impart the values of peace, tolerance, and non-violence to our young generation. Through such celebrations, we aim to instill these principles in our students' hearts and minds, empowering them to become compassionate and responsible citizens."

The event at Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School concluded with a renewed commitment to promoting non-violence and the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. By engaging in various activities, the school successfully fostered a spirit of harmony and empathy among the students, reinforcing the enduring legacy of these great leaders in shaping a better society.

As the celebrations came to an end, the students and teachers left the event with a sense of pride and motivation, ready to embrace the principles of non-violence in their daily lives and contribute to a peaceful and inclusive future.

CT 02

2023

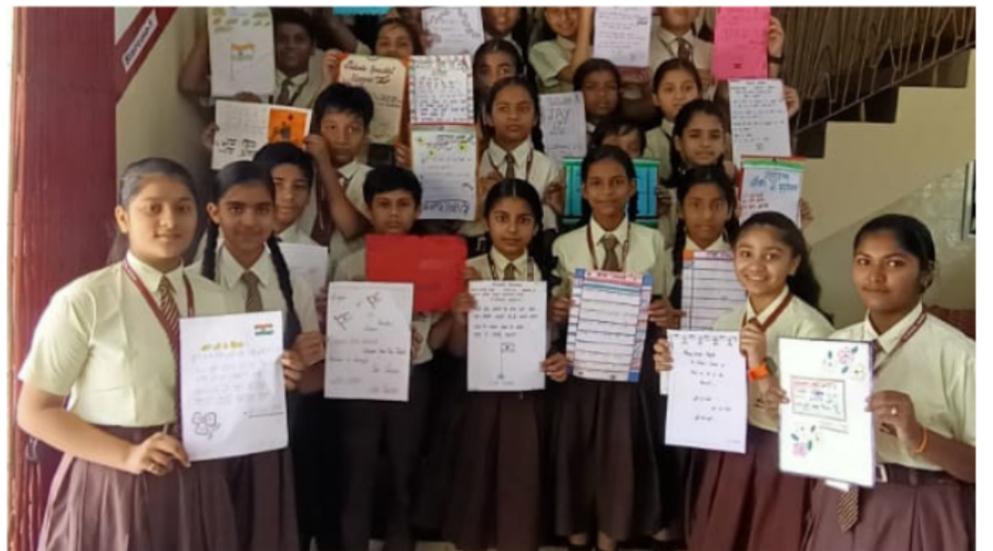

GANDHI JAYANTI

ADITYA BIRLA SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL

International day of Non Violence

ADITYA BIRLA SENIOR SECONDARY SCHOOL

We are inspiration in action

Lt. Shikha Manoj Saxena

Principal

Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School,
Nagda, Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh

Title: Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School Celebrates International Day of Non-Violence with Enthusiasm

Date: October 2, 2023

Location: Nagda, Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh

Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School in Nagda, Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh, came alive with vibrant celebrations as the school commemorated the International Day of Non-Violence, coinciding with Gandhi Jayanti, on October 2, 2023. The event aimed to pay tribute to the ideals and philosophies of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, two prominent figures in India's struggle for independence and champions of non-violence.

Under the guidance of Principal Lt. Shikha Manoj Saxena, the school organized a series of activities that encouraged students to understand and embrace the principles of peace, harmony, and non-violence.

The day commenced with an engaging session where students and teachers participated in a "Gandhiji and Lal Bahadur Shastriji make-up" competition. The participants showcased their creativity by adorning themselves as the iconic leaders, imitating their distinctive styles. The competition not only fostered a sense of appreciation for the leaders' contributions but also provided an opportunity for the students to delve deeper into the lives and teachings of these great personalities.

Following the make-up competition, students and staff united for a cleanliness drive within the school premises. Inspired by Mahatma Gandhi's emphasis on cleanliness and hygiene, the participants enthusiastically swept, mopped, and cleaned various areas of the school, promoting the importance of cleanliness as an integral part of a peaceful and healthy environment.

To highlight the significance of non-violence, a thought-provoking skit was performed by the school's talented drama club. The skit depicted the struggles faced by Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri in their pursuit of independence and their unwavering commitment to non-violence as a means to achieve social and political change. The powerful performances left the audience captivated and inspired, reinforcing the enduring relevance of non-violence as a potent force for societal transformation.

Principal Lt. Shikha Manoj Saxena expressed her heartfelt appreciation to the students and teachers for their remarkable efforts in organizing and participating in the event. She emphasized the importance of commemorating International Day of Non-Violence and Gandhi Jayanti, stating, "It is crucial to impart the values of peace, tolerance, and non-violence to our young generation. Through such celebrations, we aim to instill these principles in our students' hearts and minds, empowering them to become compassionate and responsible citizens."

The event at Aditya Birla Senior Secondary School concluded with a renewed commitment to promoting non-violence and the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri. By engaging in various activities, the school successfully fostered a spirit of harmony and empathy among the students, reinforcing the enduring legacy of these great leaders in shaping a better society.

As the celebrations came to an end, the students and teachers left the event with a sense of pride and motivation, ready to embrace the principles of non-violence in their daily lives and contribute to a peaceful and inclusive future.