The National UN Volunteers-India
International day of Non Violence
- Gandhi Jayanti celebration at S.R.Agrasen International School,
S.R.NAGAR, SIDDHARTHANAGAR
U.P.

In a vibrant celebration of the International Day of Non-Violence and Gandhi Jayanti, the National

UN Volunteers in India joined forces with the students and staff of S.R.Agrasen International School in S.R. Nagar, Siddharthanagar, Uttar Pradesh. The event featured a series of engaging activities that paid homage to the great leader, Mahatma Gandhi, and his principles of peace and non-violence.

The event kicked off with a heartfelt salutation to both Gandhiji and our former Prime minister Lal Bahadur Sasthriji acknowledging their significant contributions to the nation and the world. This was followed by a solemn Peace March, wherein students and volunteers marched in unity to promote the message of non-violence.

A cleanliness drive was conducted, underlining the importance of a clean and hygienic environment, in alignment with Gandhi's emphasis on cleanliness and hygiene. An enlightening awareness skit was also presented, shedding light on the life and philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi.

Adding a creative touch to the event, participants engaged in Gandhiji makeup, emulating his distinctive appearance and paying tribute to his iconic persona.

Principal Mr. Naresh Singh Rajput expressed his heartfelt appreciation for the enthusiastic participation and efforts of both students and teachers in making the event a meaningful and impactful commemoration of Gandhiji's legacy and the
