International day of Non Violence (Gandhi Jayanti) celebration

Ujjain:

International day of Non Violence -
Gandhi Jayanti celebration at
Nirmal International School,
Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh.

The National UN Volunteers-India
In observance of the International
Day of Non-Violence on Gandhi
Jayanti, the National UN
Volunteers-India gathered at Nirmal International School in

Bichhdod, Ujjain, Madhya Pradesh, to celebrate and promote the principles of peace and non-violence championed by Mahatma Gandhi.

The students and teachers enthusiastically participated in a cleanliness drive, demonstrating their commitment to 'Swachata hi Seva' within their school premises. Classrooms and laboratories were meticulously cleaned, fostering a sense of responsibility towards maintaining a clean and conducive learning environment.

Dr. R K Dwivedi, the Principal of Nirmal International School, expressed his appreciation and gratitude to all the individuals who actively participated in the initiative, underscoring the importance of instilling Gandhian values and promoting a cleaner and more harmonious society. The event served as a powerful reminder of Mahatma Gandhi's teachings on non-violence and his enduring legacy in promoting peace and social change.
