Community Celebrates International Day of Non Violence - Gandhi Jayanti, Engages in Cleanliness Drive at Chenna Kesava Temple

In a lively celebration of International Day of Non Violence, coinciding with Gandhi Jayanti, the National UN Volunteers in India joined hands with students and teachers from Podar International School, Tumkur, for a special event.
The day commenced with a cleanliness drive at the revered Chenna Kesava Temple. Students and teachers actively participated in this initiative, demonstrating their commitment to maintaining the sanctity of the temple and fostering a sense of community responsibility.

Principal Dr. Lava M B expressed heartfelt appreciation to all those involved, recognizing their dedication and efforts in contributing to the upkeep of the temple and promoting cleanliness within the community.

The Chenna Keshava Temple and the Gangadareshwara Temple in Kaidala, Tumkur, stand as architectural marvels, reflecting a fusion of Hoysala, Dravidian, and Vijayanagara styles. Built in 1150 AD by Gule Bachi, a chieftain of Hoysala King Narasimha I, these temples hold historical significance, as evidenced by stone inscriptions in Hale Kannada found within the Gangadareshwara Temple.

These events underscore the community's commitment to honoring traditions, fostering civic engagement, and preserving cultural heritage for generations to come.
