

UN INDIA
VOLUNTEERS

International day of Non Violence (Gandhi Jayanti) celebration

United Nations

VEDA INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

ICSE

HUBBALLI
Karnataka

Hubballi: International day of Non Violence - Gandhi
Jayanti celebration at Veda

International School,
Hubballi, Karnataka state.

The event aimed to honor the principles of nonviolence and the indelible
legacy of Mahatma Gandhi.

The event featured various activities that echoed Gandhiji's ideals and teachings:

1. Swacch Bharat Abhiyan
Remembrance:

Students and teachers commemorated Gandhiji's initiative, Swacch Bharat Abhiyan, underscoring the importance of cleanliness and hygiene in the society.

2. Salt Experiment Showcase:

A demonstration on evaporation and crystallization highlighted the crucial role of salt and its association with the historic

Salt Satyagraha,
emphasizing Gandhiji's peaceful resistance against unjust taxation imposed on salt.

3. Inspiring Gandhi Quotes:
The event showcased meaningful quotes by Mahatma Gandhi, encouraging reflection and
fostering a deeper understanding of his philosophies.

4. Promoting Healthy Food Habits:

The students explored the significance of healthy food habits while addressing the issue of junk food, aligning with Gandhiji's emphasis on a balanced and wholesome lifestyle.

5. Khadi Gramodhaya Experience:

A visit to Khadi Gramodhaya was organized to educate the attendees about the importance of Khadi, an embodiment of Gandhiji's vision for self-sufficiency and sustainable living.

Students and teachers enthusiastically participated in the event, demonstrating their commitment to Gandhian values and non-violent principles. Principal

Beena John appreciated the active involvement and dedication shown by all participants.

The event provided a platform for the Veda International School community to reflect on the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi and actively work towards creating a more peaceful and harmonious society.

OCT 01

2023

GANDHI JAYANTI

VEDA INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

International day of Non Violence

VEDA INTERNATIONAL
SCHOOL - HUBBALLI

We are inspiration in action

 UN INDIA
VOLUNTEERS

Beena John
Principal

Veda International School
Kusugal Road
Hubballi, Karnataka, India

Visit to Khadi Gramodhaya

Hubballi, Karnataka: In commemoration of the International Day of Non Violence and Gandhi Jayanti, the National UN Volunteers-India organized a thoughtful and engaging celebration at Veda International School in Hubballi, Karnataka. The event aimed to honor the principles of non-violence and the indelible legacy of Mahatma Gandhi.

The event featured various activities that echoed Gandhiji's ideals and teachings:

1. Swacch Bharat Abhiyan Remembrance: Students and teachers commemorated Gandhiji's initiative, Swacch Bharat Abhiyan, underscoring the importance of cleanliness and hygiene in the society.

2. Salt Experiment Showcase: A demonstration on evaporation and crystallization highlighted the crucial role of salt and its association with the historic Salt Satyagraha, emphasizing Gandhiji's peaceful resistance against unjust taxation imposed on salt.

3. Inspiring Gandhi Quotes: The event showcased meaningful quotes by Mahatma Gandhi, encouraging reflection and fostering a deeper understanding of his philosophies.

4. Promoting Healthy Food Habits: The students explored the significance of healthy food habits while addressing the issue of junk food, aligning with Gandhiji's emphasis on a balanced and wholesome lifestyle.

5. Khadi Gramodhaya Experience:: A visit to Khadi Gramodhaya was organized to educate the attendees about the importance of Khadi, an embodiment of Gandhiji's vision for self-sufficiency and sustainable living.

Students and teachers enthusiastically participated in the event, demonstrating their commitment to Gandhian values and non-violent principles. Principal Beena John appreciated the active involvement and dedication shown by all participants.

The event provided a platform for the Veda International School community to reflect on the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi and actively work towards creating a more peaceful and harmonious society.

