International day of Non Violence - Gandhi Jayanti celebration at Podar International School, Ambernath, Maharashtra

Podar International School, Ambernath, Maharashtra

In celebration of the International Day of Non Violence and Gandhi Jayanti, the National UN Volunteers-India organized a special event at Podar International School in Ambernath, Maharashtra. The event showcased the spirit of nonviolence through a cleanliness drive led by students and teachers.

The day began with an insightful introduction to the principles of nonviolence and Gandhian philosophy by the volunteers, emphasizing the importance of peaceful coexistence and social harmony. Following the educational segment, students and teachers enthusiastically participated in a cleanliness drive within the school premises and surrounding areas.

Principal Ms. Zeenat Syed commended the students and teachers for their active involvement in the cleanliness drive, emphasizing the significance of instilling values of cleanliness and nonviolence in young minds. She applauded their efforts in fostering a cleaner and more peaceful environment within the school and the community.

The event not only encouraged cleanliness but also reinforced the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, promoting a world free of violence and encouraging individuals to be the change they wish to see.
