

UN INDIA
VOLUNTEERS

International day of Non Violence (Gandhi Jayanti) celebration

Delhi: The National UN Volunteers-India
International day of Non Violence - Gandhi
Jayanti celebration at Delhi Public School,
Sector 103, Gurugram, Haryana 122006

Delhi Public School, Sector 103, Gurugram,
Haryana 122006

In commemoration of the International Day of Non-Violence, observed on Gandhi Jayanti, students of Delhi Public School, Gurugram, engaged in a meaningful celebration organized by National UN Volunteers-India. The event aimed to promote Gandhiji's philosophy of refraining from negative speech and actions.

Students from various grades enthusiastically participated in the event, embodying Gandhian ideals by committing to not seeing, hearing, or speaking ill of others. This symbolic gesture resonated with the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, reinforcing the principles of peace and compassion.

The Principal of Delhi Public School, appreciating the students' active involvement in expressing Gandhiji's thoughts, commended their dedication towards embracing non-violence and understanding its significance in today's world. The celebration underscored the importance of adopting a peaceful approach to conflicts and fostering unity within the community.

The event served as a reminder to the younger generation of the enduring legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and the enduring relevance of non-violence in fostering a harmonious society.

The International Day of Non-Violence celebration at Delhi Public School, Gurugram, stands as a testament to the enduring influence of Mahatma Gandhi's teachings, inspiring the youth to embrace non-violence as a path to a better world.

OCT 01

2023

GANDHI JAYANTI

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL

International day of Non Violence

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL
SECTOR 103, GURUGRAM,
HARYANA 122006

We are inspiration in action

UN INDIA
VOLUNTEERS

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

The National UN Volunteers-India

International day of Non Violence - Gandhi Jayanti celebration at Delhi Public School, Sector 103, Gurugram, Haryana 122006

Delhi Public School, Sector 103, Gurugram, Haryana 122006

In commemoration of the International Day of Non-Violence, observed on Gandhi Jayanti, students of Delhi Public School, Gurugram, engaged in a meaningful celebration organized by National UN Volunteers-India. The event aimed to promote Gandhiji's philosophy of refraining from negative speech and actions.

Students from various grades enthusiastically participated in the event, embodying Gandhian ideals by committing to not seeing, hearing, or speaking ill of others. This symbolic gesture resonated with the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, reinforcing the principles of peace and compassion.

The Principal of Delhi Public School, appreciating the students' active involvement in expressing Gandhiji's thoughts, commended their dedication towards embracing non-violence and understanding its significance in today's world. The celebration underscored the importance of adopting a peaceful approach to conflicts and fostering unity within the community.

The event served as a reminder to the younger generation of the enduring legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and the enduring relevance of non-violence in fostering a harmonious society.

The International Day of Non-Violence celebration at Delhi Public School, Gurugram, stands as a testament to the enduring influence of Mahatma Gandhi's teachings, inspiring the youth to embrace non-violence as a path to a better world.

