Gujarat: International day of Non Violence - Gandhi Jayanti celebration at Shristi English medium school, Anand, Gujarat

Shristi English Medium School celebrated the International Day of Non-Violence and Gandhi Jayanti with a range of activities dedicated to Mahatma Gandhi's principles of peace and non-violence. Students and teachers enthusiastically participated, fostering a spirit of unity and respect for Gandhian ideals.

The day commenced with engaging craftwork sessions, allowing students to express their creativity while imbibing Gandhi's teachings. This was followed by a solemn Peace March within the school premises, symbolizing the commitment to peaceful coexistence and harmony.

In the quest to test their knowledge and understanding of Gandhi's life and philosophy, a stimulating quiz was organized, keeping the students engrossed and enlightened. Further, a tree plantation drive was undertaken, underscoring the importance of environmental consciousness as part of Gandhiji's vision.

One of the highlights of the event was the "Letter to Gandhiji" activity, where students penned heartfelt letters to Mahatma Gandhi, expressing their gratitude and showcasing their understanding of his tireless efforts for a better world.

The Founder and Director of Shristi English Medium School, Mrs. Madhumita Jana, commended the active participation and enthusiasm displayed by both students and teachers. She emphasized the significance of propagating Gandhian values to instill a sense of compassion, tolerance, and non-violence in the young minds of today.

The celebrations at Shristi English Medium School were a testament to the enduring legacy of Mahatma Gandhi, reminding everyone of the power of peace and unity in creating a better society.
