Tamilnadu: SBOA Matric and HSS, Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu, Commemorate International Day of Non-Violence - Gandhi Jayanti

In a magnificent display of reverence for the ideals of non-violence and peace, SBOA Matric and Higher Secondary School in Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu, celebrated the International Day of Non-Violence - Gandhi Jayanti, marking the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

On this occasion, a vast majority of students from all grades actively participated in various creative competitions, including collage making, portrait drawing, slogan writing, and quiz contests. Their enthusiastic involvement showcased their commitment to promoting the principles of non-violence espoused by Mahatma Gandhi.

The school's Principal, Mrs. Sabural Banu Ibrahim, and her dedicated team played a pivotal role in organizing and participating in the event, ensuring its resounding success. Their efforts and passion resonated throughout the celebration, leaving a lasting impact on the student body.

The event exemplified the importance of fostering a culture of non-violence and peace in the community, paying homage to the great leader Mahatma Gandhi, and inspiring the youth to embrace these principles in their lives.
