COPS celebrated Universal
Children's Day on 20 November

2023. A special assembly was put up by the children who stressed on the importance of children being happy physically and mentally through speeches, thoughts and book review.

Speaking on the occasion the Principal Dr Ramachandran emphasized that children are an important part of the nation and they need proper moulding.

Driving into the children that empathy is necessary and paving way for holistic learning a silent prayer was held to help rescue 41 people who were trapped in the Uttarakhand tunnel for 41 days.
