Teena Machaiah

THE UN WOMEN DESIGNATE

We are pleased to nominate Mrs. Teena Machaiah for the esteemed position of UN Women Designate for India. With a strong educational background, extensive teaching experience, and a proven track record of community service and youth development, Mrs. Machaiah is a highly qualified candidate for this role.

Mrs. Machaiah holds a Master's degree in Psychology and a Bachelor's in Education, and she was honored with a Gold Medal for her academic achievements. With 23 years of teaching experience, she has been recognized with the Best Teacher Award at both Lions School and Coorg Public School. Her commitment to education and youth development is further evidenced by her role as an Award Leader for the International Award for Young People.

In addition to her teaching responsibilities, Mrs. Machaiah is also a trained yoga teacher and has actively participated in community service through her involvement with JCI India and the Rotaract Club. Her dedication to empowering young minds is exemplified by her role in accompanying five girls for the Youth Exchange Program in Kashmir in 2022.

Mrs. Machaiah's passion for personal growth and development extends beyond the classroom, as she enjoys hobbies such as trekking, dancing, gardening, and singing. Her well-rounded interests and dedication to holistic development make her an ideal candidate for the position of UN Women Designate.

We believe that Mrs. Teena Machaiah's expertise, passion, and commitment to education and youth development make her an exceptional candidate for the role of UN Women Designate for India. We wholeheartedly support her nomination and are confident that she will bring valuable insights and leadership to this important position.
