Resolution 2024: International Year of Camelids

As an educator, Mr. Muneer Abbas, Teacher at G D Goenka Public School in Srinagar, Jammu and Kashmir, is committed to promoting Sustainable Development Goal 4: Quality Education and the Global Goals. In light of the International Year of Camelids in 2024, Mr. Abbas aims to integrate the theme of camelids into the school curriculum to raise awareness about the importance of these animals in various ecosystems and their significance to local communities.

Mr. Abbas plans to organize educational activities, workshops, and projects that focus on the role of camelids in sustainable development, environmental conservation, and the livelihoods of people in different regions. By incorporating the International Year of Camelids into the school's educational initiatives, Mr. Abbas seeks to instill a sense of environmental stewardship and cultural appreciation among the students while aligning with the broader goal of promoting quality education and sustainable development.

Through his dedication to SDG 4 and the Global Goals, Mr. Abbas aims to inspire students to become informed global citizens who understand the interconnectedness of environmental conservation, cultural heritage, and sustainable development. His efforts will contribute to fostering a sense of responsibility and empathy towards the environment and diverse communities, aligning with the principles of quality education and global citizenship.
