The National UN Volunteers-India cares much about SDG 4 Quality Education, Global Goals

I, Niheash.C Nair, The National UN Volunteers-India, declare my full support for UN Resolution 2024 and SDG 4 Quality Education.

I believe that these initiatives are crucial for achieving peace, stability and prosperity in Sudan, South Sudan and the world.

I pledge to do my part in raising awareness, mobilizing resources and taking action to ensure that all children and adults have access to quality education and lifelong learning opportunities.

I call on all stakeholders, especially governments, civil society and the international community, to join me in this noble cause and make education a reality for all.

Education is a human right and a powerful tool for transformation. Together, we can make a difference.
