Mahima College of Nursing, Ballari,
Karnataka celebrated the 74th Republic
Day with great enthusiasm and patriotism on January 26, 2023. The event was attended by the principal, faculty, staff and students of the college.

The celebration began with the hoisting of the national flag by the principal, followed by the singing of the national anthem. The principal then addressed the gathering and highlighted the significance of the Republic Day and the achievements of the college. He also appreciated the students and teachers for their hard work and dedication.

The students exhibited their talents in various cultural activities such as rangoli competition, music and dance, march past, mass drill, etc. The rangoli competition showcased the creativity and artistic skills of the students, who made beautiful designs with colorful powders and flowers. The music and dance performances enthralled the audience with their melodious songs and graceful moves. The march past and mass drill displayed the discipline and coordination of the students, who marched in perfect sync and performed various exercises.

The celebration ended with the distribution of prizes to the winners of the rangoli competition and the vote of thanks by the cultural secretary of the college. The event was a memorable one for all the participants and spectators, who felt proud of being a part of the Republic of India.
