Coorg Public School celebrates 75th Republic Day with UN Volunteers-India

Coorg Public School and PU College, the school in India designated as a United Nations school, celebrated the 75th Republic Day with Principal Dr M Ramachandran, the secretary general of the UN Volunteers-India team.

The celebration began with the flag hoisting by Dr Ramachandran, who also delivered the Republic Day message. He praised the school for its achievements and urged the students to become active citizens and contribute to the nation's development.

The students then performed a march past, led by the NCC cadets and scouts. The four houses of the school also displayed their skills in a mass drill. A choir group sang a patriotic song, followed by the pledge and the national anthem.

The students also gave speeches on various topics related to the Republic Day, such as the history, significance, and challenges of the Indian democracy. They expressed their gratitude to the freedom fighters and the leaders who shaped the country's constitution.

The celebration ended with an exchange of greetings among the students, teachers, and guests. The school principal, Dr M Ramachandran, thanked the UN Volunteers-India team for their support and collaboration. He also congratulated the students for their participation and enthusiasm.

The Coorg Public School and PU College is the first school in India to be recognized as a United Nations school by the UN Department of Global Communications. The school has been actively involved in various UN initiatives, such as the Model UN, the UN Academic Impact, and the UN Sustainable Development Goals.
