

Jashn-e-Bahara

SPRING FESTIVAL

MAHAN ANJANADRI VIDYA KENDRA, BANGALORE

The National UN Volunteers-India
Spring festival - 27 January 24

Mahan Anjanadri Vidya Kendra, Bangalore - The school designated as a United Nations school in India

Spring festival was celebrated at our MAVK, also known as suggi festival.
Children, parents, teachers all participated with great enthusiasm and spirit and made the event a success.

There was a village set up on the ground, where parents had different kinds of competitions like rangoli, fireless cooking for mothers, kite flying for fathers, etc. There were also stalls of various food items, books, medicines, clothes, desserts, chats, tender coconut, etc. There were different cultural programs too, where children and parents participated in dance.

Matka phodo, kite flying, bullock cart ride, malagambha, skating, karate were some of the activities showcased by children guided by their coaches.

Mrs. Rekha Kumbar, Principal, the UN women designate, witnessed and

The National UN Volunteers-India Spring festival - 27 January 24

Mahan Anjanadri Vidya Kendra, Bangalore - The school designated as a United Nations school in India

Spring festival was celebrated at our MAVK, also known as suggi festival. Children, parents, teachers all participated with great enthusiasm and spirit and made the event a success.

There was a village set up on the ground, where parents had different kinds of competitions like rangoli, fireless cooking for mothers, kite flying for fathers, etc. There were also stalls of various food items, books, medicines, clothes, desserts, chats, tender coconut, etc. There were different cultural programs too, where children and parents participated in dance.

Matka phodo, kite flying, bullock cart ride, malagambha, skating, karate were some of the activities showcased by children guided by their coaches.

Mrs. Rekha Kumbhar, Principal, the UN women designate, witnessed and appreciated the students, teachers and parents.

Spring festival - Mahan Anjanadri Vidya Kendra, Bangalore

