WOMEN ACHIEVERS' AWARD 2024 UNITED NATIONS

Mrs. Massara Shah
Founder and Managing Director
G D Goenka Public School, Srinagar

ABOUT THE ACHIEVER

Mrs. Massara Shah
Founder and Managing Director
G D Goenka Public School, Srinagar

When you have a strong desire to achieve your goals, challenges and difficulties become your sources of motivation.

This is especially true for Massara Massara Shah, the founder and managing director of G D Goenka Public School in Srinagar. Her desire to serve her homeland never let her thoughts, despite the fact that she was trained in the United Kingdom and exclusively pursued her education there.

Considering education as the most powerful tool for change and progress, and that her own success was a result of her contribution to the education system in her homeland and introducing new methodologies, ideas and technology to ensure that children in this region of the world are on par with those in any other developed nation. But there was never any ease in this journey. Whether grouped in geographical limitations or in socio-political realm, there were numerous obstacles in the achievement of this goal.

In a conflict-ridden area like J&K, Massara Massara Shah and her spouse came a pioneering institution while enduring the worst of times. Her commitment, foresight, diligence, and unwavering commitment to quality have made G D Goenka, Srinagar a success.

The journey of this institution was through the toughest of times with no comparison to any other institutions. In Kashmir, G D Goenka public school, Srinagar was inaugurated right after the 2014 floods, which had caused a huge devastation. Following the events, the very next year after its founding, the valley was found to close for the whole academic year due to a political reason. However, the hardships did not let her as in August 2019, towards the entire Kashmir valley witnessed another total shut down due to the abrogation of Article 370, thus closing the doors of education sector once again. This was followed by the Global Pandemic.

Despite everything, the unwavering commitment of this courageous lady kept her from giving into the trials one after another. As said, "where there is a will, there is a way." When the valley was facing a total shutdown and shut down Mrs. Massara Shah gathered her strength and opened her residence. In the coming winter months of October onwards at the famous Nishat for conducting classes from early morning 6 am to 10 am for the effective preparation of her first batch of board exam grades. Facing precast terror of 2016 and 19 when even the internet was stopped, students were provided guidance through worksheets and study material from the school and during pandemic, through online classes the kept the candle of knowledge in every child's home. Such is the story of a new institution that had to be led by an unchallengeable, commitment of a strong woman - Mrs. Massara Shah.

Today her institution gives direct and indirect employment to nearly four hundred and fifty employees and provides the best of the facilities and quality education to more than two thousand two hundred students.

WOMEN ACHIEVERS' AWARD 2024 UNITED NATIONS

Mrs. Supriya S
Vice Principal, Nurture International School, Chikkamagaluru

ABOUT THE ACHIEVER

International Women's Day
March 8, 2024

Women Achievers Award

Sponsored by: The National UN Volunteers-India.

Mrs. Supriya S, Vice Principal, Nurture International School, Chikkamagaluru

Mrs. Supriya S is known for her exceptional dedication, innovative teaching methods, and profound impact on students' academic success. Throughout her career, she has consistently demonstrated a commitment to excellence, fostering a supportive learning environment and going above and beyond to ensure each student reaches their full potential.

Since childhood Mrs. Supriya was highly inspired by her mother who was also a teacher. She completed her schooling in a small town in the southern part of Karnataka. As she was an introvert, her mother encouraged her to get maximum exposure and motivated her to pursue further studies far away from home.

While pursuing Diploma in Education in Bangalore at the age of 19, in order to foster social responsibility and developing personality through community services, Mrs. Supriya simultaneously involved herself actively in National Service Scheme activities. She dedicated a major part of her vacation in organizing blood donation camps, free eye check-up camps, tutoring the orphanage students, visiting rehabilitation centres, Old age homes and educating the slum dwellers about cleanliness and sanitation by performing street plays.

Being inclined towards western music, Mrs. Supriya has performed in various programmes in Dordanihina and Radio channels. Mrs. Supriya has involved herself in various charitable events by utilising her flair for singing.

Mrs. Supriya started her teaching career very early in life. At the age of 20 she began working as a history teacher in Kuvempu and Kuvempu. She also began imparting education to the underprivileged children integrating art, music and learning. Her inclination towards story telling and reading historical chronicles awakened her to pursue a Bachelor degree and B Ed degree in History and English. Having worked in six different districts of Karnataka with different education boards such as State Board, ICSE and CBSE with 16 years of teaching experience, Mrs. Supriya displays high degree of adaptability, emotional intelligence, analytical skills, and problem-solving abilities. She is able to adjust her teaching strategies to fit both the students and the materials, recognizing that different students learn in different ways.

Her involvement in extracurricular activities and contributions to the school community further exemplify her outstanding leadership and dedication to education which elevated her to the position of the Vice Principal of Nurture International School Chikkamagaluru.

Mrs. Supriya is truly deserving of an appropriate recognition for her exceptional achievements in the field of education and service towards the society.
