Women's Day Celebration: Saplings Planted in Ramanaapuram Sathupathi Nagar Park to Promote Fitness Awareness

In celebration of International Women's Day on March 8, 2024, a special event was organized in Ramanaapuram Sathupathi Nagar Park to promote the benefits of exercise and fitness among women. Led by Mr. Subash Srinivasan, Spl Sub-inspector of the Economic Offences Wing, Ramanaapuram, and in association with the Purple Women Fitness Center, a group of enthusiastic participants gathered to plant saplings and spread awareness about the importance of physical activity.

The event kicked off with a 10 km walk through the streets of Ramanaapuram, with participants carrying banners and posters highlighting the positive impact of exercise on women's health and well-being. The walk not only served as a symbol of unity and solidarity but also emphasized the need for regular physical activity to maintain a healthy lifestyle.

Following the walk, a tree-planting ceremony was held at Sathupathi Nagar Park, where saplings were planted by volunteers and community members. The initiative aimed to not only beautify the park but also promote environmental conservation and sustainability.

Mr. Subash Srinivasan commended the efforts of all participants and emphasized the importance of incorporating regular exercise into daily routines for improved physical and mental health. He encouraged women to prioritize their well-being and make fitness a priority in their lives.

The collaboration between the Economic Offences Wing, Purple Women Fitness Center, and community members exemplifies the spirit of unity and empowerment, showcasing the collective effort to promote health and wellness among women in Ramanaapuram.

As the saplings take root in Sathupathi Nagar Park, they symbolize the growth and strength of women in the community, nurturing a healthier and more sustainable future for all.
