organisations. CPA Australia's fourth Modern Slavery statement will conclude its initial three-year roadmap which commenced in 2021 with 55 completed actions as part of its initial strategy.

The organisation's previous Modern Slavery statements are available on our website.

CPA Australia has made significant efforts to assist corporates in complying with the modern slavery legislation by introducing to accountants the rationale, nature and implications of the modern slavery reporting regime. Towards this endeavour, during the period of 2021 and 2023, CPA Australia:
