Part II. Description of Actions and Commentary on CEO's/COP's

The Save the Climat as a Civil Society Organization, is providing this following commentary on this company on its COP Statement, and in general as follow:

Regarding the Communication on Progress of Doosan Corporation and information gathered on its website, we are sincerely encouraging them in the fact that they are doing a good and strong work and they are part of the global transformation for a better and a sustainable future, and we are just requesting them to keeping being committed to the United Nations Global Compact's ten principles

In general, regarding most of COE's and COP's published, we are really pleased to see that most companies and Non-Governmental Organizations are still committed to support and respect the United Nations Global Compact's ten principles, this is very good and that will for sure, ensure the long-term Sustainability Goals, for a better future of all the Humanity.

The Save the Climat, at this date, has concluded some Partnerships with others organizations in order to advance the UN Global Compact principles, to advance the Work of UN ECOSOC, the work UNEP/UNEA, the implementation of UN Agenda 2030 of SDGs as well as the United Nations Work in general in local, regional and international level, and for example, one partnership between Save the Climat and AEPT Cameroun based in Cameroon signed on May 2022 and another Partnership with La Voix des Affamés de la RDC (VAC) in January 2023, etc.

The Organization has taken and is still keeping working on these concrete actions and Partnerships in order to advance ten principles of the UN Global Compact:
