Dear Your Excellency,

German-Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc. (GPCCI / AHK Philippinen) a business association officially representing German businesses in the Philippines, a membership organization, and a service provider, strongly supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact (UNGC) with respect to human rights, labor, environment, and anti-corruption. Consequently, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

Upholding to preserve the virtues and decency of the 'honorable merchant', GPCCI / AHK Philippinen pledge to contribute in and engage with the Global Compact and take different actions to support its principles where applicable for the activities of our organization.

Furthermore, we commit to the UNGC's Communication on Engagement (COE) policy of submitting progress report within two years of joining and every two years thereafter to demonstrate public accountability and transparency.

Sincerely yours,

Peter Kompalla
Executive Director
