

AL-HAMD

TRUST PAKISTAN

Date: Feb, 01 2017

Ref: _____

The Secretary-General United Nations
New York, Ny 10017
USA

Respected Sir,

Al-HAMD Trust Pakistan is happy to supports the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and Anti-corruption. We will make clear statement of this obligation to our stakeholders and the labor of Pakistan.

We also word of respect to contribute in and connect with the United Nations Global Compact in the following ways; propose and implement partnerships on corporate sustainability and connect with other stakeholders, also engage with Global Compact Local Networks to spreading the culture of the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact among labor and encourage the civil society to contribute in these principles.

We recognize that a key obligation for participation in the Global Compact is the submission on of a communication on engagement (CEO) that describe our organization work to support the implementation of the ten principals and to connect with the United Nations Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and (COE) policy.

Al-HAMD Trust Pakistan is a registered organization in Pakistan and member organization of Youth Assembly for Human Rights (YAHR) Pakistan for the promotion of human rights education and UN Sustainable Development Goals in Pakistan. Al-HAMD Trust Pakistan is working for the promotion and protection of human rights and particularly for welfare development in Pakistan.

Yours Sincerely,

Aziz Ur Rehman Qureshi
Chairman

For AL-HAMD TRUST