Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

Bagir Group supports the principles of the United Nations Global Compact

I am pleased to confirm that Bagir Group Ltd., a global apparel company specializing in the design, production and marketing of tailored apparel, headquartered in Israel, supports the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact in respect to human rights, labour rights, the environment and anti-corruption. Bagir is committed to operating in a socially and environmentally responsible manner. For many years we have pioneered changes in the men's apparel industry to promote greater environmental awareness and innovative technology which has influenced global consumption in a significant way. Since our early years of operation, we have served global clients who have demanded not only the highest standards of quality and service, but also the highest standards of ethical and environmentally responsibly business activity. As we develop our business, we continue to challenge ourselves, whilst maintaining our longstanding values system based on respect and integrity.

In this context, we express our intent to support and advance the Global Compact principles within our sphere of influence. We commit to making the Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our Company and intend to continue to align our support with the broader development goals of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals, wherever possible, in partnership with other like-minded organizations. We undertake to make a clear statement to all internal and external stakeholders of this commitment, in accordance with the UNGC guidelines by providing an annual communication to the Global Compact which updates our progress in each area.

We would be grateful if you would confirm our ability to participate in the UN Global Compact. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ofer Gilboa
CEO, Bagir Group
