I am writing to confirm that Transparency International UK supports the 10 Principles of the UN Global Compact, with respect to human rights, labour, the environment and tackling corruption.

Transparency International was instrumental in achieving the addition of the 10th principle to the Compact and therefore this is a particular focus of our attention. All of our organisational activities relate to the challenge of tackling corruption.

We recognise that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is submission of a report on our efforts towards implementation and commit to public reporting along these lines.

Yours sincerely,

Robert Barrington

Executive Director
