Antonio Guterres

Secretary General United Nations

New York NY 10017 USA

Dear Mr Guterres,

I am pleased to confirm that Born to be Beautiful supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following ways:

We would like to implement partnerships on corporate sustainability. We are ready to create a shared value partnership with the businesses through our corporate sustainability pack that we have created for our partners. We have tracked records of our missions in Africa and India which fight against the forced labour, child labour, and protection of human rights in the local communities.

We want to support UN Global Compact business participants as they implement and report on their sustainability efforts. We are strongly committed to empowering women and fighting against poverty. We are in a position to become the businesses' outlets for their social sustainability efforts.

We recognise that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organisation's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Glover
