NY 10017,

Dear UN Secretary-General,

Pleas allow me to introduce myself, my name is Steve Clarke I am the founder and CEO of a tech development agency now owned by the Omnicom Group. We build tech solutions for a wide spread of businesses from the Fortune 500's to small start-ups.

I am writing to express our commitment to the UN Global Compact and it's ten principles:

Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and

Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;

Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;

Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labour; and

Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;

Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and

Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

We have processes in place to ensure these are upheld in our organization and take our commitment very seriously.

We would also like to commit to taking action in supporting the goals of the United Nations as well as committing to submit our Communication of progress every year.

We are in full support of the United Nations endeavours, and would be proud to be associated to such an organization.

Steve Clarke, CEO
