Dear Mr. Secretary General,

Warm greetings from Poland. Before addressing the main point of my letter, I would like to express my great appreciation for the work of the United Nations. Deepest respect for all efforts you, and thousands of United Nations staff members and volunteers are conducting every day to make our world a better and safer place.

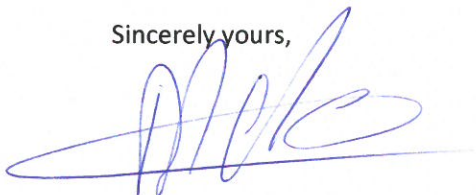

It is with this background that I am pleased to confirm that 24/7Communication supports the ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. Therefore:

- We will commit ourselves to live up to these principles. We will respect, defend and promote the ten principles within our sphere of influence. We will make the Global Compact principles part of our company's strategy, culture and everyday working standards. We will actively engage ourselves in projects and initiatives related to the seventeen sustainable development goals;
- We will promote these principles among our clients. As a leading PR firm in Poland we are advising companies on sustainability, ethics and social commitments. Where possible we will promote the Global Compact principles and goals, among our clients.

We will be transparent and accountable on our commitments through the annual submission of a Communication of Progress (COP), that describes our company efforts and achievements in this field. Our yearly report on COP report will include the company's leadership continuation of support to the Global Compact, a description of actions and initiatives undertaken and a measurement of the outcomes.

Thank you for letting 24/7Communication to be part of the United Nations Global Compact and let us have our corporate commitment to making the world a better place.

Sincerely yours,

Diederik Aarts

Managing Partner 24/7Communication Sp. z o.o.
