ScoreHub is a creative capacity building hub. We offer a special way to deal with course and workshop dissemination as well as self-awareness through various customized educational programs to support and allow learners to fill the educational gaps that they may have Our strategy is revolved around strengthening and empowering our learners. We support participants in reaching a balance between academic, social and cultural activities. We provide a curriculum that addresses language and academic gaps since each program has its strengths and focus, it strives to ensure learners have mastered the language skills to help them through the rest of their academic or working life and beyond.
