

August 11, 2020

H.E. António Guterres
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I write to express Cloudflare's interest in joining the United Nations (UN) Global Compact. Cloudflare is an Internet security and performance company that provides cloud-based network services in over 100 countries around the world. Our mission is to help build a better Internet. We believe that participating in the UN Global Compact will not only help formalize our current sustainability efforts, but also drive positive change across our organization.

To that end, Cloudflare supports the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact on human rights, labor, environment, and anti-corruption. With this communication, we formally express our intent to implement those principles.

Specifically, we commit to making the UN Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture, and operations at our company, and to engaging in collaborative projects which advance the broader development goals of the UN, particularly the Sustainable Development Goals. Cloudflare will communicate these commitments to our stakeholders and the public.

We acknowledge that participation requires the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the Ten Principles. We commit to reporting on our progress within one year, and annually thereafter according to the UN Global Compact COP policy. This includes:

- A statement signed by me expressing continued support for the UN Global Compact and renewing our ongoing commitment to the initiative and its principles.
- A description of actions our company has taken to implement the Ten Principles.
- A measurement of outcomes.

Thank you for considering our application and your continued service.

Sincerely,

Matthew Prince

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'M Prince', written over the printed name 'Matthew Prince'.

Co-founder & CEO

Cloudflare