Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am glad to inform you that Environmental Improvement Center (Centar za unapređenje životne sredine) is fully supporting all of the ten principals of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption.

As civil society organizations with primary mission, the protection of the environment and sustainable development, we believe that our participation in the working group for the environment within the Global Compact can make a contribution and thereby assist in the further development of this initiative in Serbia.

As the topic of environmental protection is of the great importance for the future, the need for synergy of action is imposed as an obligation for all of us who deal with these problems and increases the chances of a responsible and timely initiatives implemented as efficiently as possible and thereby prevent and mitigate the consequences as a result of long neglect, and also to society as a whole, is directed towards a path of sustainable development and responsible attitude towards the environment and resources of the only living system that we all share.

Sincerely yours,

Ms. Ivana Jovčić
Executive Director
