

February 1st, 2013

H.E. Ban Ki-moon
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that GPM Global, the world's only sustainability based project management professional development and accreditation organization, supports the ten principles of the Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption.

With this communication, we pledge our advocacy to advance those principles within our sphere of Influence and have incorporated them into our training courses that are taught in over forty countries.

We are committed to and have made the Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and core principles of our company in every aspect, and to engaging in collaborative projects which advance the broader development goals of the United Nations, particularly the Millennium Development Goals. GPM Global will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders, training providers, strategic partners, vendors, members as well as the general public.

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the ten principles. We support public accountability and transparency, and commit to report on progress within one year of joining the Global Compact and annually thereafter according to the Global Compact COP policy.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Joel B. Carboni
President and CSO
GPM Global

Printed on Sustainably Sourced Paper