

Sample Commitment Letter for Non-Business Organizations
[the International Center for Strategic Studies and Human Rights]

[Date] 2013/10/4

H.E. Ban Ki-moon
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017
USA

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that [the International Center for Strategic Studies and Human Rights] supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to advance these principles within our sphere of influence, and will make a clear *.statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public

We also pledge to participate in the activities of the Global Compact of the United Nations, where appropriate and feasible - through, for the application of the rules of human rights and a culture of peace in the world, to participate in the country / local area networks; participate in initiatives and specialized courses of action; participate in .partnership projects, and review and comment companies to participate in their progress

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

Name Mr. /hayder flayyih hussein]

[Title -FAO Director-General]

* Note: unlike business participants, non-business organizations are not required to develop and submit a Communications on Progress – though organizations may do so if they wish.

 This letter must be signed by the highest executive in the organization and submitted using the Organization Information Form online.